

WEARING THE MANY FRESH FLOWER LEIS with which they were greeted on arrival are Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Van Fleet and daughter, Karen. They began their spring vacation in Hawaii with a cruise on the Lurline, where they are pictured. The Van Fleets, who were in the Islands three years ago, plan several sight-seeing jaunts for Karen, who is making her first trip. As guests at the Royal Hawaiian hotel on Waikiki Beach, they will also spend considerable time enjoying the sun and sea.

Youth, Adult Groups Busy
With Round of Meetings

Members of adult and youth organizations have had a busy time in Walnut Lake attending meetings held by many of the groups represented here.

The Neighborhood Girl Scout Association held its monthly meeting on March 29, at the home of Mrs. Julian Ofenstein, on Putnam drive. Present were Mrs. E. E. Murray, Mrs. John Nababedian, Mrs. Harold Jones, Mrs. Clayton LaMotte, Mrs. James Roberts, Mrs. A. L. Latham, Mrs. Frank Norton, Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Ofenstein.

The leaders heard the results of the cookie sale, during which the goal for Southern Oakland county scouts was exceeded by one thousand boxes of cookies. Plans were made for "My Troop" day on April 26, at the Birmingham Community house.

Elected a delegate to the Southern Oakland County Council meeting at the Community House on May 3. The group asked Mrs. Nababedian to represent them.

Mrs. William Carroll, of South Chubbuck, entertained committee members of St. Davidica guild of Holy Name Altar society at a breakfast on March 24, to discuss plans for a benefit telephone bridge during the week of April 17.

Present at the planning session were Mrs. L. G. Hogston, Mrs. B. M. Crombley, Mrs. Ed. Johnson, Mrs. L. J. Doyle and Mrs. M. J. Sullivan. Mrs. J. H. Savage, Jr. and Mrs. Anthony Spier, members of the general steering committee, were also at the breakfast.

WFGM MEETING

The April meeting of the Walnut Lake Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will be held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Murray, of Meadowlake road, on April 4, at 1:00 p.m. Mrs. Murray will talk on the care of orchids and tuberous begonias. Tea hostess for the day will be Mrs. Otis Fockler.

The executive board of the Walnut Lake school PTA held a meeting on March 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, on Westmor road.

Present were Mrs. John Palmer, Mrs. Robert Smith, Marjorie Votey, Mrs. John Smith, Nola Peasley, Mrs. Richard Freund, Clare Hellenberg, Robert Myers, Robert Stevenson, Clifford Rice, Gordon Moskes and Charles Robinson.

During the meeting plans were discussed for a square dance in the near future and the June fair.

A reminder to all fifth and sixth graders: Junior Big meets at the Walnut Lake school on alternate Friday evenings from 7:15 to 9:15 p.m. Sponsored by the YMCA, these gatherings are chaperoned by local parents.

As representative from the PTA executive board, William Bishop secures parents to attend each meeting, where the group plays games, handball and does square dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Martin, of Comfort drive, and Clayton LaMotte, of Lawndale boulevard, attended the last meeting, and report that a group of foreign trade and present tariffs on business.

Brownies of Troop 612, composed of second grade girls, made sit-upons as their latest work project. Present at their last meeting were Troop committee members Mrs. O. S. Koskinen, Mrs. Otis Fockler, Mrs. Stanley J. Turner and Mrs. E. E. Murray. Nibbles were furnished by Penny Pittard.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS

Welcome to newcomers on Inkster road. Mr. and Mrs. William McCann, who have just moved into their new contemporary home. Their former address was Royal Oak.
