The O'Tooles stayed overnight at the Villa hotel in Caracas and the next morning their guide took them over the mountains to Maracay and of Valencia—then on down to Puerto Cabello where they rejoined the ship.

To Save Your Municipal Park

Vote NO Monday

On the Proposal to "Relocate" Shain Park

A bronze plaque with these words was placed in the park May 1, 1952. Mayor Dean Beier said: "This park is dedicated... because of what he did to make Birmingham a better city."

We are now asked to tear up the park for a parking lot which will provide very little added parking space.

It is claimed that the park was not formally dedicated, thus the city may legally proceed to remove it.

CHARLES SHAIN MEMORIAL PARK

Dedicated to the memory of Charles J. Shain, whose wise foresight and devotion to his home town, determined the character of Birmingham's civic development.

YOU KNOW THE PARK, between library and municipal building. You may have joined in the Christmas Carols around the tree... enjoyed the greenery, winter and summer.

WE CAN NEVER REPLACE IT.

To Save the Park—

Vote NO on Proposal 3

BETTER PLANNING can be done. Shopping is better for both customers and merchants when green areas are properly planned (as at Northland). That can be done if we keep the park where it is now. Vote NO.

WANT MORE PARKING? Let's do it right. The city has acquired a large area only one block east of the park (Merrill-Pierce) for a bigger parking lot. Let's get that lot finished!

If we need still more parking, we suggest use of the lot south of the park, which the city also intends to acquire.

A STATEMENT TO CLEAR UP "CITIZENS COMMITTEES"

Several weeks ago a Birmingham citizens group was formed at a meeting in the Community House. This group is opposed to destroying the park.

Later, advertising began to appear promoting the idea of "relocating" the park, signed by "Citizens Committee for Civic Improvement." We ask—WHOSE CITIZENS?

That group is not the BIRMINGHAM citizens committee formed at the Community House, whose members unanimously oppose "relocating" the park in the interest of keeping Birmingham a community of its present character. They ask you to vote NO.

This advertisement paid for by individual BIRMINGHAM citizens who live and vote in this city.
