DAR Has Old Songs Retraced

Early American music keyed the program at which the Three Flags chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution honored five high school seniors last week.

Calling the senior girls their ideals for good citizenship for youth, the chapter presented them with pins and awards.

Mrs. Harry Alger, at whose home the chapter met on Dolores in Lathrup village, gave pins to the girls. Those honored were Ellen Schreiber, of Southfield High school, Marilyn Davis, of Milford High school, Joyce Morrow, also of Milford, Kathleen Kurzwil, of Walled Lake High, and Mary Lee Bryan, of Farmington High school.

CHORALS, BALLADS, and folk songs, of the early era of this country, and the later music up till such musical numbers as "Foggy and Bess" and "Showboat" were presented in a program narrated by Mrs. LeRoy Burleigh, of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Burleigh and two other members of the Royal Oak Musical, had been asked by Mrs. Alger, another Musical member, to present the program.

Songs were given by Mrs. Richard O. Ruppel, who sang bits from the afore-mentioned musical shows and ballads.

Piano numbers by Mrs. Earl Pierce featured early numbers at 19th century one by McDowell, and several contemporary ones by Sawyerby and Copland.

YWCA Registers For Varied Classes On Art, Sports

Registration days for the YWCA's spring term of classes at the Northwest center at 17268 Redford, Detroit, are currently underway.

Classes in oil painting, contract bridge, good gardening and landscaping, trimmastics, military figure control through diet, many with nursery service for pre-school aged youngsters, phases of art, sewing, parliamentary law, ballroom dancing, for both adults and teen-agers, and square dancing will start soon.

For girls 8 to 15 years old, a show.

Wondrous Free" by Hopkinson, a 1759 song, and "Red Rosy Bush," an Appalachian folk song, were on the program.

Tex following the music and program was poured by Mrs. Richard Larges, a chapter member who is state registrar. Mrs. Ronnie Elias aided Mrs. Alger with arrangements.

Junior fun program has been arranged, for Saturdays, with the group going by chartered bus to and from the Northern branch in Highland Park.

Golf and tennis classes will start in mid-April but registrations are being taken now.

Attend Meeting

John Farr and Lorraine Attig of Birmingham National Bank were local residents attending the meeting last week of the Oakland county chapter, American Institute of Banking, in Pontiac, Virginia. Start of Pontiac State bank reported that the Women's committee is planning a summer style show.
