New Book Lists Local Historical Biographies

"Michigan Through the Centuries", a four-volume historical and biographical work, was presented to Baldwin Public Library last week in memory of Thomas R. Navin by Mrs. Navin.

"The work is an important addition to the reference collection," stated Jean Lloyd, librarian, "and will undoubtedly be used a great deal for research."

The first two volumes are detailed history of the state, while third and fourth are made up of biographical sketches of prominent Michigan citizens.

Among the Birmingham area residents included are Harry Allen, Dwight R. Ireland, Treasa Way Merrill and Thomas R. Navin.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the classified columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

We Heard It Said By: DAVID E. ANDERSON, Bloomfield township supervisor in regard to local boy scouts flag sales efforts: "I think it is commendable that these boys have seen a need for a more widespread display of our flag on national holidays. People, in recent years, certainly have been lax in showing the national colors, and I hope everyone will support this campaign by our local boy scouts."
