

HEAVENLY temperatures in the 80's and 90's was the comment of Mrs. Frank Teats of Beverly Manor when she returned from Florida Sunday. In Friday, she and her husband were at Pompano Beach for three weeks, staying at The Gulfstream. The trip was purely vacation, however, the Teats decided to purchase property for a seasonal home in Ft. Lauderdale. Mrs. Teats' recent ten-day trip was to complete plans for construction. Accompanying her on the latter trip was her mother, Mrs. Sally West, and a neighbor, Mrs. Jerry Katte.

Miss Minto's Troth Told By Her Parents

The engagement of Maud Dorothy Minto to Pierre Bray is being marked Saturday evening with a dinner party, at which Bray's father will be out-of-town guest.

Miss Minto has set May 14 for her wedding. Her fiancé was with Ford Motor Co. comptroller's office until November when he went with the Booz, Allen and Hamilton company of Chicago as co-management consultant.

MISS MINTO is an interior decorator at J. L. Hudson's. She is an alumnae of Agontz Junior college, Philadelphia, Pa., and the University of Michigan, from which she has a BA and where she was a Gamma Phi Beta member.

Bray holds a BA and MA from the business school of University of Chicago, and was a Delta Upsilon fraternity member.
