

WHILE THE HOUSE-WRECKERS ate luncheon, fire gave them an assist and burned away a section of this old house being torn down on N. Hunter Blvd. Russ Brant, head of the wrecking crew, said splinter pieces of the wood were being burned on the property when the dried grass caught fire and spread to the house. The crew was eating lunch at a nearby restaurant at the time. Birmingham firemen answered the original call, but returned when Bloomfield township fighters appeared. Owner of the house, J. W. Jenkins, 1716 W. Outer Drive in Detroit, gave Bloomfield township firemen a "no damage" claim since it was being demolished. (Eccentric Photo)

A Whirl of Parties Honor Engaged Couple

Mary Hopkins, who will be married to Lt. William Travis Glibb III, in April, will arrive home from the University of Wisconsin for spring vacation on April 7. Her fiancé, who is stationed at Fort Devens, Mass., plans to get here Easter weekend.

A SPINSTER dinner is being planned by Mrs. Walter Truettner, Jr., at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Walter Truettner, Sr., of Cumberland, Wyo., Detroit. Mary and Bill have checked April 13th as the day the George Willys will entertain the bridal party and out-of-town guests at a luncheon. The next day Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Gastrew have planned a luncheon.

A five o'clock supper the day of the wedding will be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. James Peddar.

The groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Glibb of Kensington, Md., will have the rehearsal dinner at the Fox and Hounds.

Although it's spring vacation, it will be a busy one with many dates checked on the calendar for the engaged couple.

A "His and Her" shower on April 29th is planned for Mary and Bill, along with a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. William Goad of Lone Pine road.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Black and daughter Carol, who attends the University of Wisconsin, will host an after-church brunch at 12:30 p.m., Easter Sunday, for members of the bridal party and Wisconsin school friends.

★ Smile a Minute . . .

Mrs. Casey—My sister writes me that every bottle we sent her in that box was broken. Are you sure you printed "This side up with care" on it?

Casey—Oh am. An' lest they wouldn't see it on the top. Oh I printed it on the bottom as well.
