MRS. THOMAS BUTTERS

Attendants Are Gowned In Rainbow of Pastels

Balletic organists in a rainbow of pastels gowned Carolyn Emma Kirm's attendants Saturday for her marriage to Thomas Wesley Butters. They were wed in afternoon double-ring rites in St. James Episcopal church with the Rev. Harold E. Towne officiating.

Escorted to the altar by her brother-in-law, William M. Hutchings, she was gowned in white and her face over white satin. A wide panel of lace extended down the front and back of dress ending in a short train with full nylon-see filling in between the lace panels. Her first

SISTERS of the bride, Kathryn Kirm was made of honor in yellow and Mrs. James Herbst, matron of honor in light blue. Their ballerina length frocks were fashioned with long tulle skirts, full skirts and square necklines.

Bridesmaids Nancy Chapel and Susan Mook were gowned in pink. Nancy Jo Hutkins, niece of the bride, was flower girl in white organza. All attendants wore matching shoes and handresses and carried baskets of spring flowers in rainbow hues.

Walter Beers was best man. Seating the guests were James Herbst, Charles Coley, Thomas Clark and James House, all of Birmingham.

A ROSE lilac colored silk shantung dress with matching jacket and accessories was the choice of Kerry's mother. Her carriage was a white orchid with lavender throat.

Tom's mother was dressed in soft blue with pink accessories and had a pink orchid.

Spring flowers were used throughout Forest Lake Country club where the reception was held. To start her wedding trip through the Smokies, the new Mrs. Butters wore a navy blue and white polka dot dress. When they return from their two weeks trip they will reside in their new Birmingham home.

Out-of-town guests included the two grandmothers, Mrs. David Herr from Springfield, Ohio, and Mrs. Frances Butters of Lima, Ohio.

Plan Rites In Kentucky

Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas Wall of Madison avenue are announcing the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Ruth Patterson, to Stanley Powell Alves, Stan's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Alves of Versailles, Ky.

Both are students at the University of Kentucky. The wedding will take place in Versailles on June 7 with the Rev. Graham Gordon, brother-in-law of the prospective groom, officiating.

Combined Meeting For Baldwin Board Residing Here

A combined board and association meeting of the Baldwin PTA is scheduled for Monday, May 16, to give members of the association an opportunity to see how their board conducts its business. The board will meet at 8 p.m. on the stage of the school auditorium.

New officers for the coming year will also be installed the same evening. They will include, Elliot Reynolds, president; Jeanne Killoran, teacher vice president; Mrs. Edward Downs, mother vice president; Hoover Huff, father vice president; Richard Steven, treasurer; Mrs. James Frederick, recording secretary; Mrs. James Loughran, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Foster Raymond, historian.

Proceeds from the Baldwin Fair will be disclosed and the use of the money discussed. Present members of the board will explain the scope and duties of their job.

Residing in Bloomfield Hills are Mr. and Mrs. Karl B. Zint, following their wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga. The couple spoke their vows in Central Reform church, Grand Rapids, recently.

The bride is the former Nancy Jean Wagenaars, daughter of the Neil Wagenaars of Grand Rapids, while the bridegroom is son of Mrs. Katherine Zint, former Birmingham resident who now lives in New Smyrna Beach, Fla.

Among the couple's attendants were Joseph Hardig, best man, Thomas Bramson and John Bull of this area. The bride's sister, Mrs. Victor D. Clark, of Grand Rapids, was among her attendants.

The couple are making their home in a Fox and Hounds apartment in Bloomfield Hills.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
