Trio of Families Welcomed By Neighbors on Rutland

Within the past month three new families have moved into the neighborhood—all of them on Rutland avenue. The house at 31255 W. Rutland* is now occupied by newcomers from St. Louis, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Beaton. The Beatons have a daughter, Laura, 15 months old, and they attend St. James Episcopal church.

Beaton who is district manager for Lederle Laboratories, has a master's degree from Northwestern University.

Across the street at 31222 Rutland, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Daseler are getting settled after their move from Berkeley. The Daselers are former Centerliners, and Daseler still returns to his hometown for Masonic meetings.

Both the Daselers are enthusiastic bowlers. Mrs. Daseler is with the Vogue Ladies' House League and her husband with the Masonic league. They are busy getting their lawn and flowers under control so that every free evening and weekend this summer can be spent at Cedar Island lake where they have property and enjoy swimming and boating.

Daseler is with the Richard and Trute Tool & Die Co.

Down the street two houses, we found Mrs. Peter O. Fries and her daughter, Lee Ann, looking over samples of material for drapes.

The Fries, from Erie, Pa., are temporarily renting a house in Birmingham on Greenwood until the decorating is finished on their Rutland ave. home.

Fries is with the American Sterilizer company and a graduate of Allegheny College in Pennsylvania. He is also a Phi Gamma. Mrs. Fries who graduated from Villa Marie in Erie, Pa., is a registered nurse.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fries like outdoor sports and golf is high on the list.

GIRL SCOUT TOUR

Mrs. Ray Sifferman and Mrs. George Fedak have made arrangements for their Girl Scout Troop 285 to take a guided tour through Kensington Park next Thursday. The Scouts are looking forward to working on merit badges during the trip.

Those planning to attend are Kit Sifferman, Judy Fedak, Judy Burkhardt, Maureen Crowley, Bonnie Perille, Sandy Genovini, Jean MacKenzie, Mary Mallison, Kathleen Rafferty and Judy Risor.

Others include Jennifer Boy, Joan Sonenfeld, Margaret Franz, and Charlotte Bosworth.

Girl Scout Troop 428, under the leadership of Mrs. Bernard Louriam, gave a tea Monday, afternoon for their mothers. Performing in skits and dances, the girls showed their mothers how much they had learned in the last nine weeks of instructions in dancing, dramatics and art.

Girls from this section were Christine DeBeater, Margaret Young, Mary Seibert, Kathleen Kelly and Pat Hartner.

When incorporation of Southfield township is voted on, June 7, a nine-man Charter commission will be elected, too. Howard A. Palmer of Beechwood, who will be running for a place on the commission, has been active in the Southfield Urban association, which is sponsoring the incorporation movement.

STORK SHOWER

Mrs. Robert Stapleton honored Mrs. Paul Osterling at a Stork shower last evening in her home on Auburn drive.

ack, Mrs. Bob Moss, Mrs. Bill Sabo, Mrs. George Brundett, Mrs. C. R. Gullford, Mrs. Edward Anderson, Mrs. Carlos Danville, Mrs. Dolph Neeme, Mrs. Howdy Brewer, Mrs. J. J. Kelly, Mrs. Carl Pallas, Mrs. Forest Stangle, and Mrs. Frank Murphy.

Duncan Hanna is director of Singerman being presented Saturday evening in Lincoln High school. The Oakland county chapter of Sweet Adelines is undertaking the performance, a musical with a little dancing and acting to weave it together.

Mrs. Carlos Danville, Mrs. Ed Lilly, and Mrs. Stephen Prucha are members of the chorus.

Among the 98 children who made their first communions at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church last Sunday, those who were honored by family breakfasts with relatives as guests were the following: Jerry Murphy, Larry Quinlan, Mary Ann Sudd, Patricia Smith, Laura Johnson, Tina Bailey, Greg Prokop, Dennis Rafferty and Roy Walker.
