Boys Learn Morse Code at B-4 Meeting

Troop B-4 of Adams School held their first meeting Monday night since their wilderness campout at the Highland Recreation Area. Phil Miner, former Detroit Scout commissioner, with visual aids, instructed the boys in Morse code.

Boys at the campout had to build lean-tos and camp tables of logs, and hiked by compass and learned to glide on the northern star during night travel.

Honor Scout Leaders

Several Birmingham men are expected to be among the 92 in the county who have completed six weeks' training in the field of Scout leadership. The men will be honored at ceremonies in Roosevelt school, Ferndale, where they will hear a talk by George Small, assistant chief executive, Detroit area council, of "Helping Boys to Grow".

Planning Group For Pack 41 Meets

The committee for Cub Pack 41 met on Tuesday, April 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Martin, on Comfort drive.

Present were Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. Ronald Burn, Mrs. Martin, Anthony Kirpluk, John Gibson, Robert Smith, Maurice Norland, Clifford Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Rudrick Menoch.

Plans for the coming pack meeting were completed, and a trip to Drayton Plains Fish Hatchery for the Cubs on May 14 was discussed in detail.

IT WAS decided that each den will provide transportation for its boys, and that the Cubs will make their own prongs for roasting hot dogs and marshmallows, as their den work before the trip. It was suggested that they also put together an easily lit bundle for starting their campfires.

Cubmaster Kirpluk passed out brochures regarding the June day camps which will be held in each district, and will give each boy an opportunity to attend camp for a three-day period.

Troop B-29 Elects

Officers chosen by Boy Scout troop B-29 at a meeting May 4 at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school are Mike Murphy, scribe, Bob Nef, quartermaster, and Michael Kelly, leader. The troop will elect patrol leaders and assistants this week.
