Barnum's Special Musical Programs

The annual spring concert was held May 6 in the Barnum gym. The band and orchestra, the largest in the history of Barnum, each presented a program.

The orchestra is under the direction of Robert Kitcher. Burt Bronson directs the band.

The vocal department, under the direction of Majel Brette, presented the seventh grade chorus and a girls' ensemble group, "The Rhythmettes."

The eighth grade boys' glee club, girls' glee club, and the choir sang several numbers. The Four Notes, a girls' quartet, also took part in the program.

Barnum observed National Music Week by presenting a 15-minute broadcast over WCAE, May 5. The boys' and girls' glee clubs and choir, who participated in the program, were under the direction of Majel Brette. The program was broadcast from the Birmingham high school under the supervision of Marzelle Clark. The announcer was Tom Crater, engineer, Carl Poltz.

HS Band Presents Concert Tonight

The annual spring band concert will be presented by the Birmingham high school band at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium.

The band, rated superior at the music festival, will give its concert under the direction of Arnold W. Berndt, presenting a variety of selections.

Highlighting the program will be a first division concert trio consisting of Stan Thompson, Garry Johnson and Dick Hubbard.

Also featured will be a piano solo by Nan De Baugre with band accompaniment, and a super-rated clarinet trio.

For many months Berndt has been preparing his highly-rated first division band for the concert.

Narration of "The Man Who Invented Music" will be done by Colin Hoskins, speech major from Michigan State university practice teacher at Birmingham high school.

Educational Meets Attract Teachers

Teachers attending educational conferences at Albon college and Fordson high school were Charles Buel, Mrs. Mildred Swart, J. Jay Myers and Hugh Wilkoff.

Buel and Mrs. Swart of the English department attended the conference at Fordson high school. Dr. Arno Jewett of the State department of health, welfare, and education spoke on "Bill of Rights for Rapid Learner."

Myers and Wilkoff went to Albon for meetings of several groups on credit unions, banks, education, and sales finance.

Teacher's Birthday

"I'm flabbergasted," was all the Birmingham high school French instructor, George Cooch, could say as he cut his red, white and blue trimmed birthday cake and opened his present, a book about the French people. Cooch, planning a trip to Europe this summer, was given a surprise birthday party by his fourth hour French class.

Frosh Girls Form '58ers Class Club

Birmingham high school freshmen girls organized the "58ers," an approved club, three weeks ago to provide class activities and help next year's new students.

Officers are Sue Ballinger, president; Siog Conway, vice president; Lynn Harrison, secretary; Sarah Blunt, treasurer, and Sue DeNador, historian.
