

Suburban Scene Traveling To Far Away Places

By FRAN MAIER

Because the Luther R. Leader and Alexander A. Appleford families are going to be in Europe this summer, Dr. and Mrs. Leader and Mr. and Mrs. Appleford decided upon an early pre-nuptial party to honor their nephew, Guy W. Tunnicliffe, and his bride-elect, Sally Andrus. Sally and Guy are planning an August wedding.

The pre-nuptial fete hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Leader and Mr. and Mrs. Appleford was a dinner and dancing party in the DAC's main dining room, preceded by a cocktail hour in a private dining room. It took place this past Saturday evening, with 24 present.

Guests included the engaged couple's respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Andrus and the Max B. Tunnicliffes; Joan Gruschow, Duane F. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fisk, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Campbell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wunsch, Ann Candler, Charles Thomas, Patricia Shea, David O. Walker, John Appleford and Susan Leader.

Dr. and Mrs. Leader, with Susan, Albert and Jane, will sail June 22. The Applefords, with sons, Robert and John, will sail a few days earlier.

Right now the puzzle is how to arrange their itineraries so the families can join up for a visit together in Europe—each wanted to see different countries on their travels and so far they haven't figured out how to make their paths cross.

Foursome Tell of Plans

Before the W. Whiting Raymonds and the L. B. Sappingtons sail this month for Naples, they either have been or will be entertained at a number of luncheon parties. Mrs. Charles J. Shain was hostess Sunday night at Botsford Inn. Her guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Giffels, Mr. and Mrs. Draper Allen, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Blythe, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Plescio, Mr. and Mrs. D. Bueck, Miss Mary Baick, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Klein, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Porter, Dr. and Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp.

Last Friday the Muir F. Linds entertained at a dinner party for both couples. On the 22nd, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Tilton have planned a breakfast and the same evening the Giffels will do the honors.

The Raymonds will leave May 25 to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Getz, Jr., of Bronxville and the Sappingtons will visit daughter, Judy, in New York before the foursome sail on May 28 on the Saturnia. They will dock in Naples, however, and will have several Mediterranean stops en route.

Corsages for the Ladies

The couples evening bridge of the Newcomers club finished a successful season with a festive party Friday at the Community House.

A large wicker basket was filled with miniature corsages; and one was given to each attending lady. The spring theme was continued with a narrow basket filled with spring flowers as a centerpiece on the refreshment table.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Milton Thompson, Mrs. John Philpott, Mrs. James Adams, Frank Galbreath, Mrs. T. Gobske, Mrs. Gertrude Campbell, Mrs. Robert Ditsler and John Miller.

A Pink and White Party

When a tea party is planned by Mrs. Forbes Hascall and Mrs. Earl Stoffregen, "just a few" can mean as many as 100 guests.

The gala affair was held from 3 to 5 yesterday afternoon at the Oakland avenue home of Mrs. Hascall honoring Marilyn Kroger, who will become the bride of Evan William Wood of Willoughby, Ohio, on May 28. Marilyn's parents are the Ralph Kregers of Clarkston, formerly of Birmingham.

Pouring from a pink and white table covered with pointe Venice over pink satin was Mrs. Louis Hascall, Mrs. R. W. Chissus, Mrs. Carl Binkle, Mrs. Edward Falberg, Mrs. G. G. Wicks, Jr., and Mrs. Earl Long.

Remember When??

"Just a little past twenty-one", was the way Engel De-Young summed up the situation Sunday when he was honored on his 94th birthday at the Adams road home of his daughter, Mrs. Carl Strand.

De-Young came from Grand Rapids for the event, which brought other members of his family to his side. There for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Kaiser and sons Mark and Gary, with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Van Hartesveldt with Carol and Alan, all of Birmingham, and Martin De-Young of Detroit.

A native of Holland, De-Young came to this country when a small boy and has been a resident of the area all his life.

Pankotans Presents Pupils in Recital

Pupils of Paul Pankotan, concert pianist and teacher, will be presented in a recital at the Community House at 8 p.m., May 25. The group includes Barbara Morgan, Virginia Horner, Brooke Dawson, Karen Walker, Bonnie Walker, Mary Margaret Cross, Jennifer Waud, Ann Larchen, Christine Jensen, Sandra Eakins, Katherine Farrell, Patricia Eakins, Julie Fitzgerald, Anette Wiescheke, Duane Lermigny.

Bowlers Form New Summer League

A new women's summer bowling league is being organized in the Eastover Farms subdivision by Mrs. Clarence C. Frahm of 3490 Westchester drive.

The second bowling session of the group will take place tonight at 8 p.m., at Broomfield Lanes, where Mrs. Frahm has reserved space. The group will meet every Thursday at the same time and place.

Mrs. Frahm has announced that women bowlers in the neighborhood who wish to join the league may phone her for additional information.
