Janet, Margaret, Gale Aim for Smith Degrees

Three students from this area are among 431 members of the Smith college class of 1955 who expect to receive Bachelor of Arts degrees at the June 6 commencement exercises. They are Janet Francis Gallaudet, daughter of the Francis C. Gallaudets of Shadow lane, Bloomfield Hills, Margaret Ann Reed, daughter of the Paul Tod Reeds of 923 Wimpleton, and Sara Gale Stringer, daughter of the Roy E. Stringers of 1060 Glenhurst drive.

Miss Gallaudet, who was graduated from the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Grosse Pointe, is in the top singing group of the choir in government at Smith. She is a member of the Smithers student society, treasurer of Hopkins House, and a member of her House Council.

A MEMBER OF the Glee Club as a sophomore and a junior, Miss Gallaudet sang with the Chamber Singers, a semi-professional vocal celebration of George Washington's birthday, her sophomore year. Miss Gallaudet has also been a member of Newman Club, an organization of Catholic students on campus, and a member of the Newman Club Board her sophomore year. She was a member of Freshman Choir her freshman year.

MISS GALLAUDET is on Dean's List, an honor accorded the students of the three upper classes who maintain an average of "B" or higher.

Miss Reed, who was graduated from Baldwin High School, is majoring in history of art at Smith and spent her junior year with the Smith College Junior Year Abroad Group studying in Paris. She is a member of the Italian Club and participated in the Rally Day Show this year.

MISS REED was a member of Freshman Choir her freshman year.

Miss Stringer was graduated from Baldwin High School and is majoring in government at Smith. She is a member of the Young Republican Club, and has been Special Chairman of her college dormitory and a representative to the House of Representatives, the legislative branch of student government.

A member of her class crew team two years, Miss Stringer also sang with Freshman Choir.

Foreign Students To Stay 3 Days In Birmingham

Thirty-five high school foreign exchange students are looking for "foster parents" during their three-day stay in Birmingham July 6-8. The students, representing almost every European NATO country, will be on their annual 30-day tour of the United States.

LAST YEAR is "foster parents" in Birmingham housed the students for three days during their visit to Michigan. Again this year the three-day stay in the city will be the longest stay than in any other city from New York to Texas during the tour.

An itinerary of tours of the area is being set up for the group.

RESIDENTS desiring to house one or two of the students can do so by calling Bob Saltzman, 1180
