Dr. and Mrs. Russell Seeburger and their son, Russell, Jr., have returned from a short but busy stay in the east. The doctor attended a convention in Atlantic City, while Mrs. Seeburger and young Russell took in the Board walk sights.
 Later they went on to Paterson, N. J., and to New York City where they visited friends. There, Russell, Jr., explored the heights of the Empire State building and the depths of the subway.

 Besides Ralph and his brothers, Larry and Allen, the guests were Dick Schubert of Franklin Village, Dale Ubras and Jerry Bae of Bloomfield Village and Terry Sampowski of Riverside drive.

At another table, members of Girl Scout Troop 346, with their leader, Mrs. Donald Dittrich, also appeared with their mothers.
 Troop 346 and 307 exhibited at the garden show held in the Baldwin library May 9 to 11.

The last season pack meeting of Cub Scouts was held May 10 at Beverly school, with observances of Mother's Day. Den 3 ported two berries begonias as presents for their mothers; Den 8, under the guidance of Mrs. Margaret Vibert, had raised African violets from slips and presented the plants as their contribution; while Den 9 gave a tea for mothers at the home of Mrs. William Jones on Beechwood.

Doctor Announced Daughter's Troth At Dinner Party

An early fall wedding is the plan of Edna Clippert Kennedy, of Detroit, and Lorne S. MacDonald, of Birmingham, whose engagement has just been announced.
 Miss Kennedy is the daughter of Dr. Charles S. Kennedy, of Virginia Park, Detroit, and the late Mrs. Kennedy. Her fiancé is the son of Kenneth J. MacDonald, of Haverhill, N. H., formerly of Birmingham.
 The betrothal announcement was made by Dr. Kennedy at a family dinner given ostensibly to celebrate the bride-elect's birthday anniversary on May 10. The party took place at the home of Edna's uncle and aunt, the Harrison F. Clipperts, with Mr. and Mrs. Clipperts and another aunt, Miss Phyllis Clippert, as collaborating hosts.
 The engagement had been kept secret as far as was possible, so the announcement came as a surprise for some of the 29 relatives present. The dinner party was very festive with a setting of pink carnations and garnet-bud roses, and lighted pink tapers.
 The bride-to-be is a graduate of Miss Newman's School and the University of Michigan, and her fiancé was graduated from the U. of M. Law School.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—the society editor about them.
