

MRS. ROBERT BENJAMIN KILDE

Chantilly Lace Chosen For Candlelight Rites

A gown of imported chantilly lace was worn by Dolores Kathryn Zoller for her marriage to Robert Benjamin Kilde Saturday. Vows were exchanged at a double ring candlelight ceremony in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer with the Rev. Theodore Wuggazer, Jr. officiating.

A bateau neckline embroidered with pearls and a dropped waist outlined in Venice lace, fashioned the fitted bodice with tiny sleeves. The bouffant skirt ended in a chapel sweep. Two tiers of imported silk illusion were attached to a fitted cap of matching lace embroidered with pearls. She carried a prayerbook adorned with a white orchid.

Dolores is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton K. Zoller of Eastmore road, Bloomfield township. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Kilde of Royal Oak.

ATTENDANTS for the bride were Mrs. John Vander Linden, matron of honor, Gloriann Taylor and Shirley Zoller, cousin of the bride, bridesmaids.

All wore white nylon organdy gowns with pin-tucked bodices and

Manhattan Boat Trip, Derby Among Travellers' Jaunts

Gilbert Lake travellers home again from jaunts include three families who journeyed east as far as Manhattan, south to Kentucky and west to the University of Notre Dame.

The Angus Campbells of Lone Pine Village were visitors in New York City and Hastings on the Hudson, N.Y. While there, they made a boat trip around Manhattan by day and dined at the Waldorf's Empire room at night.

The Robert Duffys of Magic road have returned from a trip to Louisville where they took in the Derby, The Duffy money. It was not Marie reports, on a corner called Swamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin J. Sin naeve motored to South Bend, Ind., recently for a visit with their son, Gilbert, who is a business administration major at Notre Dame University.

A 5-pound, 5-ounce daughter, Joan Elizabeth, was born May 3 at M. Carmel Mercy hospital to the Irvin Brothers of Lone Pine Village. The Brothers have two other children, Cynthia and Leslie.

Carlton Scott, Village Players board chairman, held the final meeting of the season in his home May 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott also entertained at a dinner party, Sunday. Guests were Mrs. Robert J. Clark, Sr., and her daughter, Catherine of Detroit; Robert J. Clark Jr. and children Gary and Maryjane of Livonia.

Shades of Southern California: the increasing number of swimming pools appearing in backyards around Gilbert Lake area.

BRIDGE GUESTS

Three couples, neighbors back in Cleveland, Ohio, now all living around here, were recent bridge guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kehrl of South Miller way.

Present at the party were the Carl Rasmussen of Franklin, the Sheldon Littles of Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. John McQuaid of Detroit.

Ernak S. Day, Jr., was panel moderator recently on a board appearing before Wayne university's business administration students. The purpose of the program was to give the students a picture of practical business procedure.

NEW NEIGHBORS

Hello and welcome to Phyllis and Henry Grikosch, 6228 Gilbert Lake road.

A graduation of the U. S. Naval Academy, Grikosch is an engineer for the George L. Nankervis Co.

The Grikoschs have two sons, Gary, 15, a student at Cranbrook, and Christopher, 7. Phyllis and Henry own a 25-foot ship, "Dyna" and are members of the Detroit Boat club.

Sunday morning Ruth Vogt gave a reading from her work, "In this Corner" for the mother-and-daughter banquet at St. Paul's on the Lake, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Backman, Jr., of Oakleigh attended the Orchard Lake Country club spring dance. Before the affair, the Backmans were guests for cocktails at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Martin of Bloomfield Hills.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson and Roy Keith also of Bloomfield Hills.

On their terrace overlooking the lake, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Rowe of Timber Lake road, gave a barbecue Saturday. Al Hapke was there with daughter Susie; also Jane Stockwell and Jerry Russell of Birmingham were also guests.

George Lawler, Jim Jaekel, Johnny Welsh, and Mike McHainin have been taking an almost daily swim in the lake the past three weeks.

On May 5 six candles glowed on a cake for Susan Hesberger, daughter of the R. K. Hesbergers of Joanne court. Guests present to sing "Happy Birthdays" were Dean Hesberger, Martha Urush, Debbie Broach, Leslie and Cindy Brown, Brad Schuitze, Vance and Jack Hanna.
