Girl Scout Troop 324 Holds 'Graduation' Dinner Party

Members of Girl Scout troop 324, the first registered troop in Franklin, organized in 1948, had quite a spree last Sunday when they held a "graduation" dinner at Carrie Lee's restaurant to celebrate completion of their Intermediate Scout work.

Mrs. Valney McIntosh is leader and Mrs. David Falconer co-leader of the group, which will hold its final court of awards on June 12.

Members of troop 324 are Karen Altmanberger, Joan Troutman, Nancy Brubaker, Elizabeth Campbell, Barbara Falconer, Gabe McIntosh, Lynn McWilliams and Nancy Symon.

TRAVELLERS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Dreemann have returned to their homes on scenic drive after a two-and-a-half week tour of the east coast of Florida.

The Robert Hampsons, Woodlure drive, are back from a holiday in New York City where they saw "The Fajama Game," "Fanny" and "Witness, the Prosecution" and toured the United Nations building. A side trip took them to Connecticut to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zorn were hosts at an outdoor winter concert and lawn party at their home on 14 Mile road last Saturday night with 45 members of the Detroit News hikers' club. Unit 10, the "Traveling Tramps," as their guests.

About 60 persons attended the Civilian Defense organizational meeting at the Franklin community hall last Thursday night, among them chief Al Kruck of the Southfield Township fire department and commissioner William Albee of the local volunteer department.

Just a reminder that the Spring Frolic dance sponsored by the Franklin Community association will be held at the Bonnie Brook club on Saturday, May 28, and that tickets for the affair may be had from Claude Cook, Jack Roberts or John Lackner.

BROWNIE NEWS

There will be a Brownie Round-up at the Franklin Community church at 3:30 p.m. on May 24. Girls in the area who will be in the third grade at school next fall are invited to attend and sign up for Brownie scout enrollment for next fall.

Mrs. Frank Taylor, leader, and Mrs. Connel Shelton, co-leader, and their Brownie troop will act as hostesses and present a program aimed at interesting prospective members.

The Franklin Women Bowlers, Thursday afternoon league, ended their 36-week season last Thursday with the Leslie's Cleaners team coming out on top, also holding the season's team-high game with a score of 613. The members are Leah Stott, captain, Jean Chick, Lydia Hyde and Wanda Ross.

The Village Nursery team won the team high series record with a 1681. Single game honors went to Mary Foley on behalf of her 202 game, Wanda Ross' 500 was the single high series. The league is having a bowling luncheon today at the Birmingham Country Club.

The prizes were soft and hard baseballs and bats and refreshments consisted of soft drinks for all contestants.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sutherland, of German Mill road, announce the birth of a daughter, Maude Melanie, on May 5.

Kites of All Descriptions Fly in Cub Scout Contest

A large field at the corner of Bradway and Cranbrook roads was the scene of a kite-flying contest last Saturday afternoon put on by Cdn Scout Pack B16.

All the kites entered were made by the Cubs with their fathers' assistance.

Prize for the first kite to be airborne was won by Scott Britton, with second prize for the next one to fly going to John Hern.

Steve Bartholomew's kite was voted the rangiest, gaining the greatest distance, and John Andrew won second prize in this field.

Craig Adam's was judged the best-looking kite, and John Mout's second-best looking.

Jeff Straight had the largest kite and Dick Braund the most "home-made." It was fashioned of bits of wrapping paper and a wooden yardstick.

The prizes were soft and hard baseballs and bats and refreshments consisted of soft drinks for all contestants.
