

Medical Aides Elect Officers

Officers of the Oakland county Medical Assistants society who were elected May 11 include Mrs. Richard Oakes, recording secretary, who works in a Birmingham doctor's office, Mrs. Stanley Dworkin, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Richard Taracks, treasurer, of Birmingham.

Fetes Opera Unit

Mrs. Robert G. Harris will host the division of the Detroit Grand Opera association on May 25 at a tea. Mrs. Walker Williams, women's chairman, and Mrs. Gunter Karlstrom, activities co-ordinator, will outline the 1955 opera festival program.

Woman Who Golfs, Writes Coming to Forest Lake

A woman only five-foot-one who not only wins golfing titles but writes prolifically on golfing will be among the tournament players at Forest Lake Country club on Memorial Day weekend.

Betty Hicks, who during the war held down the National Amateur title and has been amateur and professional golfer since college days in Long Beach, Calif., in 1937, was sixth in overall tourney earnings last year.

Betty Hicks

SHE HAS WRITTEN articles for such magazines as "Woman's Home Companion," "Look," and "Liberty," and her January 1954 article in "Saturday Evening Post" was an open, frank portrait of the Ladies' PGA and its members.

Her travels have taken her from Georgia to Texas in the LPGA tournaments since January of this year alone and she has been in seven of 11 events, taking second and ninth place in two.

Wardrobe tastes go along sporty lines, and though busy with the tourney swing, she achieves the look of a lady of leisure.

ON MAY 25 she and other players will come to Forest Lake for practice rounds. Next day, and through May 29, they'll take part in tournament play.

Tickets are being sold at most golf courses in the area, at the Forest Lake club, and from most of its members.

Joan Burnham Wed in South

Mrs. Elliott R. Burnham, has returned to her home, 430 Merrill after attending the wedding of her daughter, Joan, to Marshall C. Smith, Jr., Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

The rites were in the Presbyterian church there Saturday, with immediate families present and the bride wearing a ballerina length white gown.

She and the bridegroom, whose father is M. C. Smith of Hattiesburg, met last fall in Frankfurt, Germany, where she was a first lieutenant in occupational therapy in the Woman's Medical Specialists corps and he a private in the army.

Honor Bride-Elect

Ardis Van Syoc, daughter of the A. G. Van Syocs of Beading, was honored at a shower last weekend at home of Carol Hindley, with Barbara White sharing hostess duties.

Miss Van Syoc is bride elect of Ronald Phillips, son of the Harold Phillips of Hazel.

Both were recently released from service, and she spent several weeks in Birmingham.

They will live at 105 McLeod, Hattiesburg, after a trip to the Gulf.

The bridegroom is a graduate of University of Mississippi, and Mrs. Burnham of Western Michigan college of education.

Honeymoon Destination Is Pocono Mountains

Judith Ann Beaupre and Richard Carl Beckman were united in marriage noon Saturday in St. James church, Ferndale. The double-ring rites were read before 250 wedding guests.

The bridal gown of embroidered organza over tulle was fashioned with a square neckline and three-tiered skirt. Her illusion veil was held in place by a small half-inch of embroidered organza tied with a bow. She carried a cascade of roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Judith is the daughter of Mrs. Ralph E. Beaupre of Ferndale. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Beckman of Kirtland.

PHYLLIS L. Champine was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Lou Beckman, Joan Bertolini and Frances A. Coram. All attendants wore cornflower blue dresses

James Longs Mark 45th Wedded Year, Fete Child

Double celebration at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Long of Lahser road Sunday, will mark their 45th wedding anniversary and christening of their first great-grandchild, Kathleen Ann Terjes.

Kathleen is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Terjes and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Long. The settler Longs will hold an open house for approximately a hundred guests.

The Longs were married at the Old Orchard Cathedral down on John R in Detroit, their main one of Detroit. Mrs. Long recalls that her gown of white swiss lace was trimmed with Irish lace. Of princess lines, its three tiers were edged with lace. Her white bowler had a huge white ostrich plume. Her only attendant was Long's sister, Stella who is now Mrs. Howard T. Keating. Best man was Mr. Robert Hackett.
