

Young Dancers Have Ball

The 10 to 14 year-old set had a formal dance event, complete with pre-dance parties and formal dinners when Florence Schofield Young had her ballroom classes annual ball last Saturday night.

One of Miss Young's classes is in Bloomfield and 37 students of this area were among those taking part in the ball, narrated by Edgar A. Guest III, and the grand march and ball that followed.

AMONG BALLT CAST were Jane Ellen Mead as a bluebell and Nancy Kelley and Spheria Strickland as pines.

Patrons and Patronesses included the Leroy G. Vandevanter and the Howard Harringtons, the Russell Stricklands, the S. A. Stricklands, the Richard Connells, the David W. Lees and the Junior Henley Dawsons.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. John Mead III, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wilson.

A pre-dance cocktail party was given at Bonnie Nyquist's Old

Mill road home, with six young couples as guests.

VICKI ALMON, her partner, Glen Pringnitz hosted another such party at her home, for eight guests.

A formal dinner was given by Mrs. James Wright of Wing Lake road for her daughter Betty and Dennis McBea. They and three other couples had formal dinner after ginereals on the Wright porch.
