PTA Plans Gay Fair June 11 To Raise Funds for School

Expecting a repeat of last year's successful fund raising venture which provided playground equipment for the school, the Walnut Lake PTA will hold a Fair at the school on Saturday, June 11.

Beginning at 1:30 p.m., contests will be held with prizes for children and parents attending. Other features will be movies and cartoons, book, souvenir, baked goods and other booths. Concessions operated by the PTA will include pony rides, target shoots, a fish pond, miniature golf, bean bags, ring toss, souvenir photography and others.

Hot dogs, hamburgers, coffee, doughnuts, soft drinks and ice cream will be sold all afternoon and a baked ham dinner will be served from 5 to 7 p.m.

Beginning at 7:30 p.m., the musical comedy, "Surprise of a Life Time," which made such a hit at the March meeting, will be re-staged, with a cast of singing and dancing talent from the PTA membership, featuring a line of cancan dancers. This show is being directed by Mrs. Richard Freund.

Chairman of the Fair committee is Robert Myers and co-chairman is Arthur Schuler. Planning sessions for the affair have already been held at the home of PTA president, Clara Heilinger on Bloomfield drive and at the Schulers on Kenmore road.

Other members of the Fair committee are Donald Harter, Miss Marjorie Voley, Richard Freund, Mrs. O. S. Kukkinen, Mrs. John Smith, Clifford Rice, Russell Martin, Albert Schuman, Mrs. Kenneth Crumb, Mrs. Nahabedian, Mrs. Ronald Bonn, Mrs. H. G. Hampton, Robert Stevenson and Mrs. Arthur Schuler.

L.V.W. WORKSHOP

The League of Women Voters of West Bloomfield township announces a Metropolitan Public Relations Workshop meeting on June 2, 9:30 a.m., at the Royal Oak YMCA, 1015 West 11 Mile road, according to Mrs. Arthur Schuler, publicity chairman.

Top speakers selected for this meeting will be Fran Harris of WJ-TV; W. C. luncheon at the home of Mrs. Banker, on Comfort drive, on June 6. This event will be purely social.

NEW NEIGHBORS

Welcome to newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Stanley D. Hunt, on East Dartmoor road. The Hunts, who are Detroiters originally, have been living in California, in both the Los Angeles and San Francisco areas, for the last eleven years.

They have a married son who is a Lieutenant Commander in the Naval Air research division, stationed at Pawtuxent River in Maryland. Mrs. Hunt is an avid gardener, and dabbles with painting. Hunt is associated with the Gobel Brewing company.

A hobby of raising African violets, which grew into a small business of over a thousand plants raised in a greenhouse, occupied another newcomer, Mrs. Laurel Kellogg, in her former home in Naperville, Ill.

Mrs. Kellogg had over 150 varieties at the time she disposed of her venture.

The Kelloggs, who have just moved onto East Dartmoor road, and are busy getting settled in their new home, are the parents of a 2-year-old son, Gerald Lee.

Kellogg is a past master of the local Masonic Lodge 65 at Naperville. He is associated with the sales division of the Kroehler Furniture Manufacturing company.

The Garden and Science Club of the Walnut Lake school went on an outing to Kensington park May 18. This group meets once a week with principal Miss Marjorie Voley during lunch hour.

On their field trip Charles Dann, naturalist, accompanied the students to add to the interest with his specialized knowledge of their hobby.

Also accompanying the group were mothers Mrs. Joel Warren, Mrs. Clayton LaMotte, Mrs. Otto Tross, Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. John Smith, who furnished transportation and served a hot lunch at the park.

The sixth graders at the Walnut Lake school are hard at work on a program for June 7, when their parents and the principal of Barntown school will all be invited for a social get-together at the school.

Invitations are going out to mothers of all small fry ready to enter Walnut Lake school next fall to attend a roundup at the school on June 8. At this time the mothers will have a chance to get acquainted with the school and the teachers and to complete registration forms.

A son was born May 24 to MR. AND MRS. JAMES A. HUBBARD of Ann Arbor. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John S. Osler, 894 Glengary circle.
