Western Travellers Tour
Famed Las Vegas Casinos
A high point of Mr. and Mrs. George Popovich' recent western vacation was their tour of the big name shows in Las Vegas, Nev.

Conducted on the night-life tour of the famous resort town by Mrs. Popovich' brother, Captain Robert Murray, who is stationed at Nellis Air Force base nearby, they saw Liberace at the Riviera, Ray Bolger, Mindy Carson and the Dorsey brothers at the New Frontier.
Other attractions covered by the travellers were Danny Thomas at the Sands and Jane Powell at Desert Inn and Popovich reports some luck with the one-armed bandits, having hit the jack-pot once.

Beverly-Artesian Members Briefed on Township Meet

Members of the Beverly-Artesian Improvement association have been doing yeoman's duty, alerting residents in their area to the importance of attending the meeting in Southfield High School tonight on the question of incorporation.

The area covered by the group—bounded by Pierce street, West Rutland avenue, 13 Mile road and Lauderdale—has been divided into seven sections, with a block captain at the head of each.

The clock captains have talked to each family in the area, urging township incorporation, which will be voted on June 2. Your reporter has been asked by several area residents to run another reminder of the date and to stress the importance of everyone's voting on the issue.

An important event for the Paul Osterling household on Auburn drive, May 21, and exciting news for the entire neighborhood, was the birth of identical twin daughters to Mrs. Osterling at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Foley of Buckingham were proud as Punch when their six-year-old daughter, Marvion, walked off with the first prize in the beginner's horse-ownership walk and trot division at the Oakland show Saturday.

When the Beverly-Greenfield Improvement association held its annual spring dinner dance May 21 at Northwood Inn, the new officers recently elected were introduced and a vote of thanks given to retiring president, Bob Marr, and his co-officers.

2,500 other guests for a retreat at Camp Howell, William Brouck is wrapped in a pink.
Guests from Birmingham were Nancy Ellen Perkowski, and Patricia and Barbara Foley were in some of the dancing class performance given on Sunday at the Fargo Sisters studio at Royal Oak.

Pink was the color theme of a stork shower given by Mrs. Joseph Crain at her home on Locherie last Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Ruth Jensen. Mature pink baby carriages were used as place cards.
