

Southfield Soldiers Get Tokyo Leave

SOUTHFIELD—Two township soldiers recently spent a week's leave in Tokyo from their units in Korea.

The two were Pfc. Lawrence F. Iker, son of Henry R. Iker of 24154 Boege Crest; and Pfc. Donald C. Nolla, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrilus C. Nolla of 17859 Dunblaine.

Nolla, a member of the 330th Communications Reconnaissance Company, entered the army in April, 1953 and arrived overseas one year later.

Iker, who entered the army in July, 1954, is a generator operator in the Medical Company of the 7th Infantry Division's 32nd Regiment.

Expand Annual Student Exhibit

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—By using the entire upstairs floor of the Cranbrook Academy of Art Galleries for the first time, the annual exhibition of student work opening to the public Saturday, May 28, will include pieces in greater quantity and size than ever before, arranged into more elaborate special displays.

Theodore Luderski, designer of the show, has announced.

Against fixed and free-hanging backgrounds in black and white, objects of weaving, ceramics, metalwork, design, sculpture, painting and architecture by 85 artists will be grouped in a variety of settings. Colored poles forming screens divide the floor area and lead to display units.

"THE HIGH ceilings suggested suspension of exhibits from above as well as relating them to walls and floor in the usual manner, and also permitted inclusion of muralized paintings and sculptures up to ten feet high," according to Luderski, head of the academy design department.

Normally open from 2 to 5 p.m. daily except Mondays, the Galleries will be closed Friday, May 27, in preparation for the opening next day. The student exhibition will be on view through Sept. 18.
