Organist to Play For Zonta Group

Frederick L. Mariotti, organist at Kirk in the Hills Presbyterian church, will present a program of organ music at the May 10 meeting of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Zonta club.

The group will meet at the home of Betty Clevers, 3141 Interlaken, Pine Lake for a 6:30 dinner.

Hostesses Join U-M Party Plans

With hostesses still joining the ranks for the University of Michigan Alumnae association's telephone bridge, the funds being raised by the day-long event have been boosted by early donations and a Finnish program.

Mrs. Norris Host has received donations from 30 persons, and it was she that hosted the Sara Strengell talk on Finland last Thursday, attended by 27 persons.

Hostesses are picking up table prizes from Mrs. Fred A. Henry, 3218 Bradway, Bloomfield Village.

Others are Mrs. J. K. Bunkey, Mrs. Russell Heyl, Mrs. Webster Scheffele, Mrs. Alfred Alfis, and others.

DAR Regent Reports Here

Mrs. Clarence W. Wacker will tell other members of Piety Hill chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, details of her installation as state regent of Michigan at the Continental Congress at the chapter's Tuesday meeting.

The meet is set for 12:30 p.m. at Mrs. Alvin McEwen's home on Goodhue road, Bloomfield Hills and will feature convention reports and officer elections.

Mrs. Wacker, Mrs. William DeGraff and Mrs. Thomas R. Navin attended the April 17 through 22 convention of DARs in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. NAVIN is national vice-chairman of approved schools, and Mrs. DeGraff, national committee-woman on resolutions.

Mrs. Roy L. Tharman has charge of the potluck luncheon arrangements.

Berkshire WNFCA Annual Meeting And Plant Sale

The Berkshire branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association held its annual meeting and plant sale at the home of Mrs. James Barbour, 1335 Sherwood drive, Tuesday morning.

The election of officers resulted in Mrs. Archie McGill and Mrs. Otto Grob remaining in the office of president and vice-president respectively for another term. Mrs. John C. Calhoun was elected second vice-president and program chairman; Mrs. Henry Croteau, recording secretary; Mrs. George Wright, corresponding secretary and Mrs. James Barbour, treasurer.

The new officers will be officially installed at a luncheon to be given at Devon Gables, Wednesday, June 8.

It was announced to the membership by Mrs. Walter Hedley, Conservation chairman, that Thomas Pykary, the 8th grade teacher at Bloomfield Village school, would represent the Berkshire's branch during Conservation Week held at Higgins Lake this summer. Pykary will report his findings at one of the fall meetings. After sandwiches and coffee, the group gathered in the Harbour Club for a luncheon. A plant sale got underway. At last report every plant was gone.

Breakfast Begins Golf at Pine Lake

Opening breakfast for Pine Lake country club is at 10 a.m. today, when officers for the year assume duties.

The new officers are Mrs. Joseph M. Brennan, of Detroit, chairman; Mrs. E. O. Borglin, Rosedale Park, co-chairman; Mrs. Gardiner Vase, treasurer; Mrs. Max Greenman, Rosedale, secretary; Mrs. Mark Kraus, district representative; and Mrs. Frank Arnold, junior chairman.

About 45 are expected at breakfast and nine-hole session on the links.

Tri Deltas Fete Nat'l Officer

Delta Delta Delta's national treasurer, Mrs. John Fletcher of New York, N. Y., was a guest in Birmingham last week.

She was the houseguest of Mrs. Ben Ragland, and was entertained by group of the Birmingham Alliance of the Tri Deltas at the home of Mrs. D. D. Shadlow, 547 Riverchase, Monday at 11 a.m.

Local Tri Deltas who have national officers who attended were Mrs. R. C. Kitteridge, of Detroit; Mrs. Lawrence S. King, of Pleasant Ridge; and Mrs. Ragland.

After the breakfast, the group toured the State Hospital at Pontiac.

A low cut flower bouquet decorated the table where guests were served coffee and snacks, and sprays of apple blossoms decorated the home for the meeting.
