PEABODY'S

MODELING FASHIONS OF the Mary Hayes shop on North Woodward at the first luncheon event at Tam-O-Shanter Country club will be this trio. Left to right are Mrs. Bert A. Hyman and Mrs. Harvey Willens, both Detroit members, and Mrs. Robert Koch, of Puritan, a professional model. The luncheon is at 12 p.m. tomorrow, and is featuring the first style show given by the seven-month-old dress shop.

A FORMER Birmingham resident, Mrs. George Hendrie, now of Metamora, was honored Monday evening when the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom met in Detroit. Mrs. Hendrie was presented with an album containing letters from many noted persons, members of the League, commending her for her untiring and splendid service to the group and its projects. Hosts Minnesotans At Country Club Hostess of the University of Minnesota Women's club that is meeting tomorrow at the Birmingham Country club is Mrs. Arthur Zeljedec, retiring president.

Outgoing and incoming officers will be honored at the luncheon. The new staff being installed is Mrs. Raymond Books, president; Mrs. John Krupp, vice-president; Mrs. J. E. Welby, second vice-president; Mrs. Robert Hefty, secretary; Mrs. John Gray, corresponding secretary; Mrs. T. E. Olson, treasurer, and Mrs. Ian Stanley, assistant treasurer.

Directors are Mrs. Wallace Selum, Mrs. J. D. Ferguson, Mrs. Gordon Lindner, Mrs. Victor Drummond, Mrs. Zeljedec and Mrs. John Joyner.

Season to Close For Torry Mothers

Final meeting of the season for the Torry Preschool Mothers is scheduled for 8 p.m., Wednesday, May 11, at the school.

New officers have been named for the ensuing year with Mrs. Charles Rash heading the group as president. Assisting her will be Mrs. Charles Martin, secretary; Mrs. James Cobb, program chairman; Mrs. John Hagen, membership chairman; Mrs. Charles Shullberg, membership chairman; and Mrs. Wayne Mitchell, hospitality chairman.

Will Marry In Tucson

Sgt. Herbert Hopkins will claim Janice Huff of Phoenix, Ariz., as his bride in a ceremony Saturday in Tucson.

A Baldwin high school graduate, he was home recently visiting his mother and sister, Mrs. Phyllis Hopkins and Phyllis, 808 Ann street.

After serving four years with the Air Force, he has re-enlisted for an additional four, with plans of making it his career.

Sgt. Hopkins is stationed at Davis AFB in Tucson. His mother will fly there for the wedding.

Parties Honor Engaged Couple

Parties for bride-elect Kerry Kinn and Thomas Butters will come to a close this week.

Two of the bride-to-be's sisters, Kitty Kinn and Mrs. James Herbert, gave the bachelor/dinner last night. The bachelor's dinner, the same night, was given by Walter Heers on Chesterfield, his residence.

The rehearsal dinner, Friday night, is being hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Butters, his parents, at Devor Gables, preceding their wedding at St. James Episcopal church on Saturday at 3 p.m.

Organ Society Will Hear Porter Heaps

Members of the Birmingham Hammond Organ Society will attend, in a group, an informal musical program presented by Porter Heaps. He is considered one of America's finest Hammond organists and teachers.

Heaps will present a program of helpful tips for amateur or home organists.

The program at 8 p.m., Tuesday, May 10, at Grinnell's downtown store, will replace the organ society's May meeting.
