Southwestern Motor Trip Provides Adventure, Fun

Adventure travelled with the Robert Kloors and their children, Ricky and Robolyn, of Lanerger drive on the three week motor trip they took recently to the southwest.

Part of the adventure was provided by a severe dust storm they encountered in Oklahoma. As a result of the storm, the new car they had purchased for the trip had to be repainted and rechromed on their return home.

Ricky and Robolyn got a first-hand lesson in political history for the Kloors visited the White Sands Monument in New Mexico, where the first A-bomb tests were made; and its natural history, for they also spent some time around Saguaro National park, a habitat of snakes, lizards, mule deer and strange bird life.

At Colossal cave, near Tucson, a huge cavern with many connecting rooms, the travellers were shown traces of old Indian camps and evidence, in the form of abandoned money bags, that loot from a $62,000 Wells Fargo stage hold-up in 1854 had been divided there by the robbers.

On their way through El Paso en route to Juarez, Mexico, the children also got a lesson in geography when they saw that the fabled Rio Grande was only a trickle of water in the sandy bed.

WELCOME NEIGHBOR
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mooney, who formerly lived in the Birmingham terrace apartments on Yosemite, recently purchased the Robert Grundt Butterut Hill home. Members of the Detroit Boat club, the are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Balogh of 3910 Orchard Hill drive, who formerly lived on Washburn in Detroit.

Balogh, a die designer with Fisher Body, works with Harold Wilkins and it was after seeing the Wilkins' new home in Hickory Heights subdivision that the Baloghs chose this neighborhood.

Mrs. Balogh's hobby is pinocle. She belongs to a monthly pinocle club which she entertained at her new home the very night they moved in, amidst all the hustle and bustle.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Musilek, formerly of Roseville, and now in their new home at 2559 Earning Bu. h. are also new neighbors. They have two children, Loren, 8, and Gloria, 3.

Musilek's hobby is golf but Mrs. Musilek is so busy organizing their new house that she has time for little else.

Musilek is part owner of Prompt Tool and Gauge Co.

BENEFIT PLANS
Mrs. Peter B. Robinson, chairman of the refreshment committee for the Penrose "Panic" to be held May 13 for the benefit of the new school, had a planning meeting at her home on April 27.

PTA members present were Mrs. N. O. Wyncoop, Mrs. Abbott Gibney, Mrs. Donald Stuart and Mrs. J. C. Holzworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Smith of North Adams road and Edwin Hurd of Detroit were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Crites, also of De-

Detroit Yacht club and the Blue Rod Gun club, the Mooneys' hobbies are hunting, fishing and flying.

Mrs. Mooney has her own ocean plane and she and Mooney often fly up to lakes around Sault Ste. Marie for lake trout fishing. They usually spend weekends at their Pointe Aux Barques cottage, a favorite retreat, which is to be written up soon in House Beautiful magazine.

The Mooneys are both avid gardeners and Mrs. Mooney, who is interested in interior decoration, has changed the interior of her new home from its early American decor to striking modern.

President of the Pioneer Engineering and Mfg. Co., Mooney also owns the Huron Glass Products Co.

Other newcomers to this area troit, April 27 at the Detroit Gun club dinner held to honor members holding the highest scores for the winter shooting season.

Crites holds the World's Champion Skeet title. Following presentation of awards, a motion picture of a big game hunt in Africa, filmed by Hurd on a recent safari, was presented.

Society deadline is 2 p.m. each Tuesday.

End Current Story Hours at Library

Kathleen Picket, children's librarian, will close the current season of story hours Saturday morning, Three titles, "The Tinder Box," "Master of All Masters" and "Eppanmonds and His Aunt" have been selected. Miss Picket said the story hour would open for the summer schedule, probably the end of June.
