

The art of practicing patience is a virtue worth more than tons of gold. Because one can become impatient, therefore unhappy and irritated every day over something, one ought to learn and practice patience for its own sake.

The Birmingham Eccentric

PACKING FOR NEW YORK is Mrs. Frederick C. Booth, whose youngsters, Bill, 2, left, and Gray, 3 1/2, were eager to help. Mrs. Booth left this week to attend the Planned Parenthood Federation of America at the Waldorf-Astoria on May 4, 5, and 6, with Mrs. Charles Renfrew, wife of Birmingham's mayor. After representing the Birmingham branch of the 3-day meet, Mrs. Renfrew will return with Mrs. Booth goes to Babylon, Long Island, to visit former Birminghamites, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Thurlow.

Showers Honor Sarah Reason

Sarah Ann (Sally) Reason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair D. Reason of West Maple road recently returned from Delray Beach, Fla., to complete arrangements for her wedding June 18. Sally will marry James Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Fisher of Cumberland road, Detroit. The wedding will take place at Gesù Parish in Detroit with a reception following at the Detroit Golf Club.

Sally's maid of honor will be Elizabeth Loeffler and the bridesmaids are Mrs. Richard Reason, Mary Ann Collins, Julie Young and Mrs. Robert Reason. For his best man Jim has chosen his brother, Ray Fisher. Ushers are William Reason of Norfolk, Va., cousin, Donald Fisher, Thomas Hookmeyer and Donald Gargaro.

With the wedding not too far off Sally has quite a few red circles on her calendar indicating showers and parties. On May 18 there will be a personal shower at the Grosse Pointe Yacht club given by Mrs. G. R. Cramer. On May 21 Mrs. Richard Reason and Mrs. Emmet Ross, both of Birmingham, will honor Sally with a kitchen shower in Mrs. Ross' home on Reedmer road.

Bit O' Verse

FREEDOM

Freedom, life's most precious jewel is not easy to possess, Sometimes we must fight to keep it, Bravely live for its success.

Men of courage have preserved it, But the price has been so dear, Once attained, we must not waver, Nor let-down from year to year.

Nations prize it very highly, Yet the sacrifice required, Sometimes causes us to falter, Freedom's cause must not be mired.
