City Moms Start LL Fund Campaign

Mothers of the Birmingham Little Leagues have opened their annual fund raising campaign with a goal of $3,000 for the operation of the three circuits in the city.

The Little Leagues, which depend strictly on contributions and without sponsorship are required by national regulations to raise $1,200 for each circuit in the organization.

THEY ARE three circuits in Birmingham, the American, National and Federal, which are made possible by the voluntary services of the Mom's club fund raising campaign.

The mothers opened the drive this week and one of the first contributors was the PTA group from Quanton school, according to publicity chairman Mrs. W. Edwin Mosher.

Y's Men's Club To Host Missionary

The Birmingham Y's Men will play host to Dr. and Mrs. Frank Kuscha from Johannesburg, S. Africa Monday night at their meeting in the Dr. Ormond Lounge of the Y.M.C.A. at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Kuscha will be returning to his people in June after interning at St. Joseph hospital in Pontiac in the field of surgery and internal medicine.

He and his wife will tell human interest stories of the work among the tribes in Africa and the progress being made by the huge continent of Africa. The speaker will be introduced by Moran Barstow and the meeting will be under the direction of president Ernest Robinson.

HS Civics Groups Invited to Annual Citizens Meet Here

Civics classes from Oakland high schools have been invited to attend the annual meeting of the Oakland Citizens League at the Birmingham Community House May 12 at 8:15 p.m. when Thomas K. Reel, director of civics affairs, Ford Motor Company, will speak.

Reel, chairman of the national Hoover Commission task force on fair-personal problems in the Department of Defense, will speak on "Let's Take Off the Blinders".

From personal knowledge, he will reveal behind the scenes stories on the major governmental reforms which the Hoover Commission has completed and which are now being extended into new fields.

Henry S. Booth, Bloomfield Hills, League chairman, will review activities of the organization which since BHS has acted as a "watch-dog" over county governmental affairs.
