

So long as one "lives and breathes and has his being" he is provided with the wonderful opportunity of growing into the stature of a greater person. He who chooses his inner self who imparts his mind, merely breathes.

State's Club Leaders Coming for International Tea

MRS. BACKUS shows a Bali Island figurine purchased in Hong Kong and artworks she and her husband brought back from their four-month trip around the world that concluded last spring. Mrs. Lines at far left, holds gay colored dolls from Manila and Sicily, while Mrs. Kahn, center, admires a brass camel from India.

An International Scholarship Tea, sponsored by the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, Michigan Division, is scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 16 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Lone Pine road home of Mrs. J. J. Nance in Bloomfield Hills.

Proceeds from the international tea will be used for the Farm Youth Exchange program, where students are exchanged with foreign countries for work and study in rural areas. The work is carried on by the 4-H club at Michigan State university.

Miss Sarojini Gadre from Jabalpur, India, who is studying at Michigan State and is interested in the problems of women and children of India, will speak.

MRS. FRANCES SAWYER, national representative of the United Nations for WFNFA will also be present. Wives of foreign consuls in the area have been invited and an unusual exhibit of international material is promised by Mrs. R. E. Vanderkoot, exhibit chairman, assisted by Mrs. Hugh D. Backus, who concluded a four month trip around the world last year.

Mrs. Frederick W. Lines is general chairman with Mrs. Louis Kahn as co-chairman. Mrs. J. C. Roberts is the program chairman with Mrs. J. S. Sibley as hospitality chairman. Mrs. Lloyd Southard will be the tea-table hostesses. Refreshments are being handled by Mrs. William E. Ferguson and Mrs. Howard Herrington while Mrs. Robert Mason is in charge of table arrangements with Mrs. Horbalt Andrea and Mrs. C. B. Harman as co-chairmen.

THE INTERNATIONAL Relations hostess is Mrs. Otto Groh, with tickets and finance being handled by Mrs. Earl Hanson, Mrs. Cash Talbot and Mrs. Robert W. Chissus. Mrs. Robert Watt and Mrs. J. Hawley Otis are acting in an advisory capacity and Mrs. Frank R. Chapman is state international cooperation chairman. Publicity is being handled by Mrs. Bert Wicking, assisted by Mrs. Carman Adams and Mrs. George Crane. Filling the tea cups during the afternoon hours will be Mrs. Lyle Slaybaugh, president of the Michigan State division of WFNFA. Assisting her will be Mrs. William McCallum, Mrs. Louis Dibble, Mrs. Robert Vander Pyl, Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. Mark Kraus, Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, Mrs. William Andrew Compton, Mrs. J. F. McConkie, Mrs. Frank R. Chapman, Mrs. Howard Liverance, Mrs. Claude Rossegnie, Mrs. H. D. Wood, Mrs. Richard English, Mrs. William Boreford, Mrs. J. C. Roberts, Mrs. Louis B. Savage and Mrs. R. J. Waterbury.

STILL OTHERS, who will pour are Mrs. Lynn McNaughton, Mrs. Henry P. Williams, Mrs. Roger Kyles, Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. Everett Wells, Mrs. Lloyd Kemp, Mrs. Standish Bachus, Mrs. Alfred Wilson, Mrs. Ralph Polk, Mrs. Leslie Green, Mrs. Meredith Randall, Mrs. Herbert Poehle, Mrs. Marvin Weeks, Mrs. Cash W. Talbot, Mrs. LeRoy Vandercor, Mrs. John R. Davis, Mrs. Raymond T. Ferring and Mrs. J. Hawley Otis.

Besides the scholarship program, WFNFA branches contribute to CARE, "Pennies for Friendship", and the American Friends Society, who send seed packages to foreign countries to promote the planting of friendship gardens. The branches also cooperate with the Associated Country Women of the World, an organization interested in furthering friendship and mutual understanding among the rural women of the world.

Suburban Scene Localites Attend New York Rites On Week End Trip

By FRAN MAIER

Travel will be booming next weekend as localites are readying for a trip to New York to witness the marriage of Ann Herbert Micou and Cornelius Mark Harper, Jr. After arrivals, Miss Elizabeth Knox, Ann's godmother, will entertain at a luncheon and her uncle and aunt, the Herbert Micous of Grosse Pointe will host the rehearsal dinner at the Rye Yacht club.

Besides Mrs. Harper, attending will be Mrs. Murray Rice, Mrs. William Manning, Jr. and Mrs. Richard Fischer, Morley Walker and John Wallich. Another uncle, the Herbert Micous of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, will be unable to attend because of travels abroad.

Scarsdale Congregational church will be the scene of the Nov. 19th ceremony, followed by a reception at the Scarsdale Woman's club.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. Crewell MacMurray Micou and the late Mr. Micou. The Cornelius Harpers live on Pilgrim road.

Home in Hills

After they've returned from their wedding trip to Hawaii, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Koch will establish residence on Beech road in Bloomfield Hills.

The bride, the former Lillian Avers, and Robert exchanged wedding vows before the Rev. Walter Young of Christ Church Cranbrook Friday afternoon at the home road. Skippy's parents are the Victor A. Cannon of Cloverly road, Detroit.

On Nov. 15 Skip's mother will give a tea at the Detroit Country club introducing Lillian to her friends.

Will Poodles Add Spark?

Fashions in fur, which last year were featured at a Lathrup Woman's club party as ideally reflected by fashionably matching poodle dogs, are again on the Lathrup unit's agenda. Committees aren't saying yet whether dogs will again be spark to the Dec. 8 showing.

Business-Pleasure

Headquartered at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Elliott S. Kinney of Chesterfield avenue, who are in New York for a week attending the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. They also plan to attend the "Voice of Firestone" program and several plays.

Elected to Honorary Fraternity

An honor bestowed upon Marcia Close is one limited to those students who rank in the upper seven per cent of the student body and who are carrying at least 12 academic hours at Stephens college, Columbia, Mo.

She has been elected to Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honorary scholastic fraternity. Miss Close, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Close of Kennesaw is also editorial editor of the Stephens Life, the student newspaper.

Musical Member, District Officer

Mrs. Arthur R. Roeben of Greenwood drive, Birmingham has been elected secretary-treasurer to the Southeastern district of Michigan Liederle Music club. She was chosen at the district meeting in Leslie last month.

Representing the Birmingham Musicals were Mrs. Robert D. Lyon, president, Mrs. Gerald McMechan, Mrs. Iva W. Baberstein, Mrs. Arthur R. Roeben, Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner and Mrs. D. L. Tate.

Barnums' Parents Go to 'Classes'

This year's open house of Barnums Parent-Teacher association is scheduled for 7:45 p.m. this evening at the school, when parents will have the opportunity to meet their children's teachers, to see Leslie last month.

Representing the Birmingham Musicals were Mrs. Robert D. Lyon, president, Mrs. Gerald McMechan, Mrs. Iva W. Baberstein, Mrs. Arthur R. Roeben, Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner and Mrs. D. L. Tate.

Bazaar, Dinner Troth Announced Slated by OES At Family Dinner

Under the direction of Order of Eastern Stars, Birmingham Chapter No. 229, worthy Matron Mrs. Elizabeth York, tickets are shaping up for the annual bazaar and turkey dinner at the Masonic Temple in Birmingham on next Wednesday. With bazaar hours from 1 until 4 p.m., dinner will be served from five o'clock until 7.

Refreshments can be made by calling Mrs. E. D. Broedlow, of Villa Road, Birmingham.

An apron booth, sponsored by the Past Matrons club will be a feature of the bazaar, along with children's clothing, fancy work, white elephant table, canned and baked goods, and articles for Christmas gifts. Children's toys and dolls will be on display.

Bazaar arrangements are under leadership of Mrs. Anna Forman, while Mrs. David Masterton is in charge of the turkey dinner.

Because Mr. and Mrs. Kai Hanson will be telling of Australia when they lived there and showing colored slides, and because members are having husbands and women interested in becoming Daughters of the American Revolution, the Pi Phi chapter of the DAR has changed its November meeting place to a larger spot.

The chapter will meet Monday evening at 8 at St. Johns Episcopal church in Royal Oak, Woodward at 11 Mile, rather than the library as planned earlier.

THE HANSONS, who live now on San Diego in Lathrup, lived several years in Australia. Mrs. Hanson is a Pi Phi member.

A collection of gifts brought by members for children in DAR approved schools for Christmas is planned.

The Sunday, 15 members met at Regent Mrs. Harry Aigner's home to sew on children's clothes for the Southfield, 1st-wood fellow's association.

Pi Phi Lunch And Sew on Pads

Luncheon and sewing of cancer pads were an agenda when the Bloomfield Hills Alumnae club of Pi Beta Phi met at Mrs. H. Gordon Seaton's home on West Harsdale, Bloomfield Hills, on Tuesday. Hostesses were Mrs. W. S. McNary, Mrs. Paul Eaton, Mrs. John Townsend and Mrs. A. E. Little.

WCTU President of District Visits

District president of the WCTU, Mrs. Joseph Green, will be guest at the November meeting and tea at Mrs. Earle Cunningham's home, 605 South Bates of the local WCTU.

Business meeting is at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow and tea will be served later by the hostess.

DELEGATE Mrs. Morris R. Liles of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, represented the Detroit Wells club at the annual alumnae council of Wells college in Aurora, N. Y. A graduate of Wells, Mrs. Liles is in the college's Wells Fargo steeplechase. The old coach is used usually to carry May Queens to their coronation and at commencement, when all graduates ride to baccalaureate exercises.

Chi Omegas Hear Convention Report

At the Tuesday meeting of South Oakland County alumnae chapter of Alpha Chi Omega, Mrs. Gordon Pulling reported on the 30th annual national convention where she acted as a delegate from the local chapter.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William Gidley, 238 Waddington, who had accompanied Mrs. Pulling to the convention held in July at the Greenbrier hotel in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.

Mrs. Pulling showed mementos from the trip including a blue ribbon poster she had made depicting some of the local chapter's work in the fraternity's national general policy philanthropy.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. John F. Seely, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Thornbury, Mrs. John Ferrentz and Mrs. H. W. Ives.

Mr. Hagopian was graduated from Michigan State and was a member of Kappa Sigma. He holds the rank of Lieutenant (j.g.) in the United States Naval Reserve and served aboard an LST during World War II. He is associated with Detroit, Chrysler Corporation, as sales promotion manager.

No wedding date has been announced.

Hard Times Party Set by Epsilons

Epsilon Epsilon chapter of Lambda Tau Delta sorority will sponsor a hard times party Nov. 11 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Ed. Edmund Gamble hall, 8425 Fenkel, Detroit.

Mrs. Lee Halvax of Southfield township, group chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Manuel Barcia of Birmingham. Working on committees will be Mrs. Wilfred McGuire of Franklin village, tickets, and Louis Michelson and Mrs. Bliss French, refreshments.

Schedule Toy Party

The Birmingham Stephens Alumnae chapter of Stephens college, Columbia, Mo., will hold their November meeting on the 16th at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. W. E. Flanders, 4885 Franklin road. Program will be a Poly Toy Party.

Wing Lake Hobbies Reaches Goal

By VIRGINIA COLE

Mrs. Wallace M. Coultts, Wing Lake road, whose painting hobby began only five years ago, said it's a thrill to have had one of her oil paintings accepted by the Michigan Artists Exhibit that opens at the Detroit Art Museum, Nov. 19.

Mrs. Coultts took up painting five years ago as a quiet hobby following an illness which required her to limit her activities. At that time she started by taking drawing lessons at Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts.

Since then she has studied at the Birmingham Community House under Mrs. Vinton P. Birch and with James Ashcroft of Detroit in landscape painting. At present she is studying at the Birmingham Community House under Harry Colman who is working on his Master's degree at Cranbrook.

Cadets to Be Guest Speakers for Zonta

Two young women, cadets in the Civil Air Patrol, will speak at the Nov. 15 meeting of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Zonta club. The dinner meeting will be at 6:30 p.m. in the home of Thelma Marshall, 504 Pilgrim.

The two, Jan. Wan, Redford squadron, and Barbara Nuyes, Birmingham squadron, will speak in observance of America's Earth month for Zonta club. Zonta International provides scholarships for women flyers to further their scientific education in aviation.

Alice Holmes Is Colorado Delegate

Colorado Woman's College will be represented by Alice Holmes, N.S.A. chairman from Birmingham at the United States National Student Association meeting held at Regis College in Denver November 5 and 6.

A confederation of democratically elected student governments at 300 colleges and universities, the association carries on a program for the betterment of student government and student welfare through education.

PICTURED in front of the Vienna State Opera is Mrs. Raymond Reilly, far right, who returned Tuesday night from a two-month trip to Europe. She went to the World Travel Congress in Lausanne, Switzerland, and visited in Paris and the Black Forest area of Germany. Mrs. Reilly operates the Birmingham Travel Agency on Hamilton and lives on Oak street.

MRS. COULTTS, standing beneath one of her first oils, a realistic marine scene, holds an abstraction of a woman which she is just painting.