

Burkhardt Keglers
Tops in Franklin Village League

FRANKLIN — The Burkhardt Company team has held first place among the Franklin Village Bowlers, for the past four weeks. The team, comprised of Barbara Worcester, Charlene Burkhardt, Dorothy Pasfield and Lois Skeels has piled up a record of 21 games won to 11 lost.

Loella Boehm, on the Birmingham Eccentric team, holds the high individual single game with a score of 195, followed by Helen Owen, of the Murray Way Corp. team, with 190, and Bernie Evans, on the Walstrom's Market team, with 183.

Holding the individual high series titles are Loella Boehm, 518, Lois Skeels, 482, and Helen Owen, with 455.

Holding team high singles spots are Murray Way, 865, Burkhardt Co., 572, and Walstrom's Market, 558. Honors for team high series go to the Walstrom's team, with 1531.

Friendly Circle
To Meet Nov. 16

FRANKLIN — Members of the Friendly Circle of the community church, will hold their regular monthly meeting at 12:30 p.m. next Wednesday, Nov. 16, at the home of Mrs. Win Hinman, 27310 Wellington road. Dessert will be served at that time and a business meeting and program will round out the afternoon.

Mrs. Glen Shoemaker is to show slides taken during her trip abroad, with emphasis on France and Switzerland. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. C. J. Nepper and Mrs. Haskell Wright; devotions will be led by Mrs. Delton Sifton.

Want a good used car? Look in the Classified columns under "For Sale—Automobiles."

1501, Murray Way, 1534, and the Birmingham Eccentric team, with 1531.

Franklin Village
ANGELA DADSON MA 6-2441

Modern Reading Methods
Topic of Franklin PTA

Modern methods of teaching reading will be the main subject of a panel discussion when the Franklin Parent-Teachers Association meets in the multi-purpose room at Franklin school next Monday, Nov. 14.

Moderator of the panel discussion will be Daniel Nesbitt, principal of Pierce school; Charles Palmer, principal of Pembroke school will be administrative representative.

Mrs. Ben Harris, parent representative; J. W. Levan, business representative and teacher representative; Tina Kne, primary teacher at Torry school.

A short business meeting, starting promptly at 8 o'clock, will precede the discussion and the evening will close with refreshments served by the mothers of third grade children.

The Franklin branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association is to meet at 1:30 p.m. next Monday in the social room of the Franklin Community church, with a panel of the members showing and discussing their successes with house plants.

On the panel will be Mrs. Harry Barr, Mrs. Harry Hueter, Mrs. Lynn Roberts and Mrs. Don Tracy. Refreshments will be served at the end of the session.

Mrs. Barr has a meeting scheduled for this afternoon, at her home on Meadowdale lane, with the Christmas greens sales committee of the WNFG.

The Wilford Smiths have returned to their home on Garden Way after vacationing in the west. They left early in October with an itinerary which included Vancouver and the Canadian Rockies, points of interest in Washington and Los Angeles.

Visiting the Joseph McCourts at their home on North Cromwell currently are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fisher of Philadelphia. They plan to stay another two weeks.

The Ralph Woodburns took off for Culver, Ind., last Thursday to bring son Jimmy home from the renowned military academy for a weekend visit. He left by train last Sunday to report back to the academy that evening.

NEW RESIDENTS
Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ramsey and family, formerly of Birmingham and now in their new home on Baffin road. Their children are Brian, 6, in the first grade, Linda, 5, in kindergarten at Franklin school, and Betsy, who is just 19 months old. Ramsey is chief purchasing agent for the American Motors Corporation in Detroit.

Welcome, too, to Mrs. Irma Davis and children, former Detroiters now settled in their new residence on German Hill road. Son Roger, 15, is a sophomore at Birmingham high. Jill, 12, is in the seventh grade at Barnum, and Courtney is 2 years old.

There will be a meeting of Franklin Girl Scout leaders in the social room of the Franklin Community church at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 22.

Carol E. Higgs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Higgs, 52821 West 13 Mile road, a '35 graduate of Wheaton college, attended homecoming activities at the college recently.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Two S'ld Families
Host African Violet
Club's Pilgrimage

SOUTHFIELD — Two families here will host Border Cities African Violet Club's Annual Pilgrimage Nov. 14.

The tour starts in Detroit where club members will gather and travel to four homes here before coming to the Vincent Soto home, 25500 Lee Baker, and on to the Beverly Hills home, Thompson home, 26580 Evergreen road.

At Thompson's the monthly business meeting will be held along with annual election of officers, and a discussion of plans for African Violet show to be held next Spring.

Between the business meeting and refreshments, the club's 40 members will view Thompson's collection of over 200 different kinds of African violets including some of the newest, double pink varieties.

'Holy Land' Is Topic

FRANKLIN — The Holy Land will be the topic of the Rev. Roy McBeth of Stratford, J. & S. n church of Detroit when Evening Circle members meet Nov. 17 at the home of Mrs. George Huffman, 26590 Scenic at 8:15 p.m. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. John Barileon, Mrs. Leonard Pogue and Mrs. Jack Skeels.

We Heard It Said By:
CHARLES N. SHERWIN, Southfield Optimist club member: "Last Saturday and the Optimist ladies and cars with loud speakers were going into precincts to register voters for the Southfield charter election, some people raised their window blinds to see what was coming, and then lowered 'em right away. I guess some people were waiting for us to carry the voting machines right to their door."

West Beverly
Anna McCleary MI 6-4342

Garden Club Members Complete
Gift Boxes for Hospital Inmates

West Beverly Hills Garden Club members will complete decorative gift boxes they are making which will be given to Pontiac State hospital inmates when they meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harold C. Reasoner, 32344 of Dunblaine.

A special contribution from the Guild is a beautiful doll which will be given away during the bazaar. This doll is fully equipped with a complete trousseau, consisting of bridal gown, evening gown, ballet costume, skating outfit and western garb. A four-poster bed goes with it. Some little girl will be made happy after this event.

Mrs. Dorough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dorough of Beaufield celebrated her birthday and Halloween at one and the same time by entertaining her friends at luncheon Saturday, Oct. 29.

The girls were Kate Gimman, of Beverly road, Lynn Vogel and Jo Anne Vogel of Beaufield, Lee Kayser of Bedford road, and Sheri Zebaloe of Riverside. After a dainty luncheon they left for the theatre where they saw "The Seven Little Foys."

Honors go to two of our Beverly Hills girls this month. Anne Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Baker of 14156 Beverly road, attending Boston University, was honored by an invitation to an open house given at the home of Dr. Harold C. Case, president of the university.

Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Brown of Bedford road are pleased to announce that they have just received word that their daughter, Nancy, has been made secretary of the freshman class at Albion where she enrolled this September.

The Birmingham Musicale today features piano music, songs and clarinet solos by Louise Kutscher of Birmwood. A former vocal and instrumental music teacher in Royal Oak schools, she is now giving private lessons. She has also been a member of the Detroit Women's Symphony Orchestra, and received her training at Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio State University.

The hospitality committee of the Musicale is headed by Mrs. William Hohmeyer of Hillcrest and Mrs. Samuel Trude will head the tea committee.

BAZAAR WORKERS

Many women in West Beverly are working on Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church bazaar to be given this Saturday under the supervision of Mrs. Catherine O'Rourke.

The work of the St. Christopher Guild is in charge of Mrs. Henry Semowski of Riverside drive. She is assisted by Mrs. Wilfred White of Hillcrest, Mrs. Alfred Gode, of Warwick, Mrs. Casar Sama, of Kirkshire, Mrs. William Gilmore of Waltham, Mrs. John Varley, of Devonshire, and Mrs. Albert Gray merly lived in Bryn Mawr, Pa., are now in their new home on Hill crest.

Mr. Chenet is connected with the Detroit Insurance Agency, and they attend Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church. They have a quartet which makes music around the house—James, S. Douglas, 6, Scott, 2½, and Charles, 1½.

Also new neighbors are the R. P. Gibbons who moved from Detroit, Oct. 29. Sixteen guests were present on Carl Elder road. Mr. Gibbons has his own business, the R. B. Gibbons Co. They spend many hours on the water, their boat, the "Gibson Girl" being docked at the Detroit Yacht Club.

They are well settled in their new home and opened its doors for a house-warming Saturday night. Sixteen guests were present, including, besides their Detroit friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Nadal of Beverly Hills.

Then there are the S. M. Wilsons. They came from Pittsburgh, Pa., and have been living for two months on Beverly road. They have three children, Sandra, 8, Smith, 6, and Timothy, 5, all enrolled in Beverly school. Mr. Wilson is connected with the Jones-Laughlin Steel Co.

Davidson's
filled with Christmas excitement

Woodward Avenue, Birmingham

special purchase
of magnificent handbags
18.50
made to sell from $25 to $35

Perfectly timed for you personally, as well as for Christmas giving. Choose from calf or suede. Brown, beige or black.

Open 9:30 to 5:30
Free Parking
Next Door

Decorative Fabrics Galore!
Silpovering and Upholstery Fabrics

All Seconds
● PRINTS ● STRIPES
● BROCADES ● TWEEDS

Cotton, Fortisan and Nylon Blends

SAVINGS UP TO 50%

Calico Corners

1640 S. Telegraph rd., Bloomfield Hills, Mich.
Bus. hrs. 9-5, 274 Miles N. of Devoe Gates, a FE 4-2143
Open Monday & Friday Nights Until 9:00

Gow's Little Acre

Reduced Angels 1954 Models!
Apothecary Jars in a dozen sizes from $1.00 to $4.50
Rolly Polly Tumblers in 4 sizes
Italian Glass Fruit Bracelets, Earrings and Chokers for Christmas
A new modern light wood Chest on Chest
CHRISTMAS CARDS SHOULD BE ORDERED EARLY

GOW'S LITTLE ACRE
Livernois & Square Lake Rd.
Troy, Mich.
MULberry 9-1035
OPEN SUNDAYS

your ... Christmas
CASHMERE—at a price
AND WHAT A PRICE!

Classic Short Sleeve
SLIP-ONS... $12.98
Reg. $17.95

Long Sleeve
CARDIGANS... $16.98
Reg. $29.95

and a host of exciting fashion sweaters

Irregulars by our standards but you'll need a microscope and 20/20 vision to detect any flaws

fashion center since 1925

Davidson's
WOODWARD AVENUE
BIRMINGHAM
"Smart shoppers generally shop Davidson's"

IN ORANGE JUICE, TOO—

BIRDS EYE
IS BEST!
Today
5 6oz. CANS 89¢

BIRDS EYE
Strawberries
3 10 oz. vgs. 85¢

BIRDS EYE
FLAV-O-RICH STEAKS
1 lb. pkg. 59¢

Welch's
GRAPE JUICE
2 6 oz. cans 45¢

LIDO CANDIED YAMS, 14 oz. 35c

ORDER YOUR TURKEY NOW!

WE CAN SUPPLY YOUR HOLIDAY MEAL... FOWL, HAMS... ORDER TODAY

LIQUOR & BEER TO TAKE OUT
S.D.M. & S.D.D. Licenses

Free Parking Ref. at Store

Free Delivery Service

BIRMINGHAM FRUIT CO.
124 N. Woodward MI 4-4030

For job-cited special offering
Dresses by Henry Rosenfeld 10⁹⁵
made to sell for 17.95

A wonderful opportunity to capitalize on our shop's uncanny ability to search out magnificent values.

Davidson's
WOODWARD AVENUE
BIRMINGHAM
Open 9:30 to 5:30 Free Parking Next Door