ETHEL SNYDER

Troth to James Moore Revealed

Engagement of Ethel Mary Snyder to James J. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Moore, 208 Humphrey, Birmingham, has been announced by her parents, the Albert Snyders of Royal Oak. Moore was discharged from the army Oct. 31 after serving two years. He is a 1932 graduate of Birmingham high school and is now employed at Pontiac Motor. His bride-elect is a 1934 Royal Oak high school graduate and is employed with Michigan Bell Telephone Co. They have not set their wedding date.

Barnum Students Form Ensembles

Members of the band and orchestra at Barnum school are forming small ensembles to develop better musicianship among more advanced instrumental players. Students meet one night a week for the ensemble training under the direction of Burton Bronson. They are: Margaret Chamberlain, Jean Golske, Carolyn Schwimmer, Jim Posther, Delmar Gowing, Gayle Grant, Phil O'del, Jay Hengelman, Judy Wamberg, Herb Kettler, Tom Burgum, Edson Stevens, Marge Stettbacher, Phil Mack, Paul Simons, Gary Poole, Mike Emery, Candy Mack, David Saman, Sue Parkins, Jim Alic and Don Van Boren.

Dec. 5 Hearing On Office Zone

A new professional office zoning classification will come up for hearing Dec. 5 before the Birmingham city commission. To be known as "Business C," it is designed as a buffer zone between residential areas and the heavier business A and B zones. Plan Technician Herbert Herzberg said the plan board was finalizing a new zoning ordinance which combines the numerous amendments made since 1948.
