Poole's Concert To Earn Funds to Build Here

Valter Poole's annual concert for Detroit Country Day school takes on a Birmingham interest, since funds this year will go towards building on a site south and west of Birmingham.

Poole, noted as assistant conductor of Detroit Symphony orchestra and of the music faculty at Wayne university, has two sons attending the school, which is located now on Seven Mile between Wyoming and Meyers.

For the concert, he is bringing his associate conductor, Robert Lawson and the 75 piece Wayne symphony orchestra.

News of the building plan was released this week as the school noted that all the concert's funds would go into its building fund.

POOLE HAS given the concert for several years, and this year's event will be at 8 p.m. next Monday evening.

Ohio U. Alumni Schedule Hayride

Continuing with this year's activities the Ohio university Alumni association of Detroit announces plans for a hayride. The alumni, their families and friends are invited to the event from 4 to 8 p.m. Nov. 27, at Hayride Lodge, Rochester. Games, the hayride and dancing will be followed by a supper.

Plans for the party were made by the current officers, Thomas H. Morgan, president; Walter Yoh, vice president; Richard Ludwinski, secretary; and Marvin Rice, treasurer. Reservations may be made through Bill Brandie, 215 West Maplehurst, Ferndale.

During intermission the Detroit Country Day glee club under direction of James Doe will entertain. After the concert, refreshments will be served with hostesses including Mrs. Howard Harrington of Adams road, whose husband is with the Detroit Symphony, and Mrs. George Olmstead, of Birmingham, whose husband is a doctor at Beaumont hospital.

Graefield-Derby Thanksgiving Basket Filled By Cub Scouts of Den One

Den 1 of the Cub Scouts for this area visited Cranbrook Institute of Science on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Kenneth D. Kilbury of Pembroke is den mother and Mrs. Helen Davis is her assistant.

On Friday following Thanksgiving the scouts each will bring a staple food to Mrs. Kilbury's home where they will prepare a basket for a needy family. The basket will be delivered personally by den members.

The den is comprised presently of four wolves—Robert Bickner, David Linton, Mike Wilkinson, David Fore, and four bears, David Barber, Fred Kaufmann, Owen Davis and David Kilbury.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard E. Preston and their 10-month-old daughter, Deborah Jane, are now residing at 1694 Graefield road, having recently arrived from Miami, Fla. where Dr. Preston served his internship at Jackson Memorial Hospital. He received his formal education at Iowa State University and is a resident physician at Lafayette Clinic in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Carey of Graefield road are spending three weeks as guests of Mrs. Carey's parents in Princeton, W. Va. Their daughters Judy and Lee have been spending the past three months with their grandparents there and will return to Birmingham with the Careys.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Fourteen friends of John Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Brown helped to celebrate his fifth birthday on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 12. The party was planned around a Thanksgiving theme with brown and yellow decorations and a turkey tablecloth. The children played games including pin the tail on the donkey, and Mrs. Brown read them a Thanksgiving story.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Hart of Graefield court will attend the Michigan-Ohio game at Ann Arbor on Saturday. There will be 28 in the party, with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mayes of Lane Lake road, Bloomfield Hills, as guests of the Harts. Following the game there will be a dinner party at the Herbert Schott home in Howell.

On Thanksgiving Day Mr. and Mrs. Hart will entertain at a family dinner at their country home in Howell. Guests will be the McPherson Browning family of Lansing, Mrs. McPherson Browning, Sr. of the Whittier hotel in Detroit, and her daughter Florence Browning of Grosse Pointe.
