

Veterans Honored

Veterans' day was observed at Birmingham high school on Friday. Ted Schafer read a speech by Gen. Mark Clark honoring the flag of the United States, and a band played "Stars and Stripes Forever." The speech was followed by a minute of silence. Taps was played by Gary Johnson.

CHARLES F. GAVIN, assistant director of admissions at Carleton College, will visit Birmingham high school Nov. 16 at 9 a. m., to interview prospective students for Carleton. Carleton is a coeducational and residential liberal arts college in Northfield, Minn., about forty miles south of Minneapolis and St. Paul.

LEARN TO DRIVE

Easily Correctly Safely Individually

DUAL CONTROL METHOD
County Wide Pick-Ups and Returns of Students' Seven Days Per Week

Michigan Driver Training

MI 4-3325

610 N. Woodward, Birmingham

You'll Shed Pounds

Let us help you slenderize. We can show you how to pare off pounds easily — healthfully — in an amazingly short time.

relax! . . . no rigid diet

INQUIRE ABOUT OUR GYRO-LATOR PLAN

Gyro Slenderizing Studio

2750 W. 12 Mile Rd., Berkley LI 7-5030
Hours: 9:30 to 5:00 daily, evenings by appointment

BODINE'S

"The Greeting Card Shop"

GIFT WRAPPINGS

USE OUR LAY-A-WAY To buy Your . . .

TOYS

DOWNSTAIRS TOY DEPT.

CHRISTMAS CARDS

172 N. Woodward

OPEN SUN. 10-7 DAILY 9-9

MI 4-1177

- BIRMINGHAM
- BLOOMFIELD HILLS
- CRANBROOK

School News

- TROY
- SOUTHFIELD
- KINGSWOOD

Junior Musical Announces Plans

The Birmingham Junior musical met last week at the home of Barbara Brown. Plans were made for the group to attend two concerts at the Masonic temple in the near future. The Nutcracker Suite Ballet will be presented at the first concert. The Don Large choir will appear in the second. The next meeting will be at the home of Janette Munge. Among those who will entertain are Pat Barkley, Carol Peck and Kelly Hanson.

A JOINT MEETING with Key-noters will be held in January. The group plans to enter an All American music contest sponsored by the national federation of music clubs in which a prize will be awarded to the musical group presenting the most outstanding program. Officers of the club this year are Pat Barkley, president, Barbara Brown, vice president, Mary Ojala, corresponding secretary, Judy Boucher, recording secretary, Sharon Gray, treasurer and Deleane Bonome, publicity chairman. Mrs. D. L. Tate is the group adviser.

Exchange Students Of Last Summer To Attend Hayride

A hayride for last season's summer students will be given by the American field service Saturday in Milford, Michigan. Attending will be approximately 35 students, four of whom will be from Birmingham high school. They are Margaret Davis, Janet Palmer, Susan Tabor, Ekhard Dorfman. Mr. Green from Milford is lending his farm equipment and refreshments for the hayride. Other high schools to be represented are Bentley, Milford, Mumford, Reelford, Royal Oak, Cooley and Coaly. The summer return students are to pay $1.50 for the hayride. Of that one dollar goes to the American field service summer fund, and 50 cents to the Michigan fund which helps to pay for the meeting of foreign American exchange students.

TORRENCE OIL COMPANY
Phone MI 4-9000
"We Serve the Suburbs"

High School Holds Variety Show

Teachers and students will display their talent in Birmingham high's annual variety show "Holidays in Europe" tonight and tomorrow night. The theme is based on a summer trip abroad by E. A. Hubbard, Miss Virginia Louis, and George Cough. Directed by Angelo Angelelli and Dave Dixon, student director, the show will be made up of French, English, German, Dutch, Russian, Hungarian and Spanish acts.

HIGHLIGHTS will be the choir directed by Victor Ulrich and the band directed by Arnold W. Berndt. There also will be a fashion show, dances, and a teachers' number. Sale of tickets is headed by Ralph Battenhouse, senior advisor. Thousands of people read The Eccentric Classified Ads. So remember if you want to sell that hard-to-get-rid-of article, advertise it in the Want Ad section of The Birmingham Eccentric.

The flattering beauty of Burmel's hand printed master designs on generous portions of fine Irish linen. Geometrics and florals in the newest colors. . . each with fine hand rolled or embroidered scalloped hems. . . each destined to become a treasured accessory in a smart woman's collection.

Special at 59c each
Regularly $1.00

BHS Field Day Is Evaluated

There has been a question going this year's Field day was well run, around Birmingham high school. The only criticism was of the "Field day dying out." At the judging if Field day is continued, Field day evaluation meeting held judging will be set up so that last week the general opinion was there can be no ties or half points given. Under the leadership of Stu Laidlaw, a committee discussed the pros and cons of this question and decided that Field day would be more practical with next year's smaller enrollment of only three classes.

WITH STUDENT Congress 140 advanced business students handling this problem, a speaker who learned how to operate four will state the good and bad points on the PA after which a vote will be taken in homerooms to determine whether Field day should be continued. As a whole the group thought

U of M Students Visit Birmingham Alma Mater

Alumni attending the University of Michigan were recently interviewed by Birmingham high school counselors and Ross A. Wagner, principal. A workshop for new principals and counselors began the program Wednesday evening, followed by a general session in which the instructional program was explained. Thursday morning the freshmen were interviewed. Wagner reports that as a group they are doing well and enjoying the University of Michigan. An open house followed the interview. The program concluded with a luncheon.

142 W. Maple Birmingham
Branches in Ferndale - Royal Oak - Mt. Clemens
OPEN FRIDAY EVENING TILL NINE

SALE

Famous Maker
Full Fashioned
All Perfect
Fine Wool
Regular $35.00 & $39.95

KNITTED DRESSES $15

Sizes 9 to 15
Assorted Colors

McSWEENEY'S FINE FOOTWEAR

277 Pierce MI 6-4488

The woman who lives in a Haymaker shoe!

She's the busiest woman on two feet—two of the happiest, handsomest feet. She's wearing Haymakers, the shoe that's cobbled by hand from a single shell of finest kip-calf-skin. $14.95. In bucko suede, $15.95. And Haymakers perfectly matched bag and gloves complete the picture. The Pump, Blue, Benedictine Red, Brown The Wedge Tie, Brown, Red, Blue

Haymakers
the softest shoes that ever walked

as seen in Vogue and Harper's Bazaar

CANTERBURY

Full Fashioned Orlon Sweaters and Matching Mingler Skirts

Thoroughbred—in the British sense of the word. These full fashioned, hand detailed sweaters, with the precious air of cashmere, take quite casually to the water, dry in winning time—never need reshaping. Marvellous colors. . . Fashion Red, French Blue, Winter Mint, Camel. All picked up perfectly in the matching flannel skirts. Sweater sizes, 34 to 40. Skirt sizes, 8 to 18.

THE HIGHLANDS INSPIRE A BONNIE PLAID DUSTER

BY Evelyn Pearson

Every lass who loves her leisure loves "Bonnie Plaid" . . . the exciting new quilted cotton coat with blazing bright quilted corduroy! In plaids as young, gay and sparkling as you are . . . and safely washable. See the delectable details . . . the sassy sleeves, the tab pockets, and shiny black buttons! Red, aqua or gold. Small, medium and large.

$8.95

The Cardigan $8.95 The Slipover $5.95
The Skirts $10.95 each