JEANNE DALQUIST

April Wedding Plans Revealed
 A family dinner party Sunday revealed the arrangement of Jeanne Dalquist to Fred Earl Hollis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Hollis of Detroit. The bride-elect's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William E. Dalquist of Cambridge avenue, Lakewood Village.
 Jeanne is a 1949 graduate of Royal Oak high school. Fred is June 1952 graduate of the University of Michigan, School of Business Administration, and was affiliated with Lambda Xi Alpha.
 An April wedding is planned.

Dr. Carter Tells Of Parents' Duties

Dr. Paul Carter talked on responsibilities of parents when the annual Bloomfield Village I.P.A. Open House was held last week at the school.
 Dr. Carter of the Birmingham board of education, compared responsibility of parents and teachers in developing a sense of responsibility in our children in addition to the formal curriculum the children receive in classes.
 After Dr. Carter's brief talk, parents visited their children's classrooms where they met teachers and were told about curriculum. When this classroom visit was over the parents were served refreshments in the multi-purpose room by the Fifth Grade mothers.

Thanksgiving Holiday Plans Made by Village Residents

As days grow more tan, an air of anticipation is felt in the village, as families prepare for the Thanksgiving holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Kaegi of Waddington road are anxiously awaiting their two daughters' return from their respective colleges. Ann is a senior at the University of Indiana, while Susan is a junior at Hollins College in Virginia.
 Mr. and Mrs. John H. Palmer expect their daughter Patti, home from the Connecticut College for Women, New London, Conn., for Thanksgiving. Patti spent last weekend at Dartmouth attending the annual fall house party.
 Visiting the F. A. Smarts of Overhill road on Thanksgiving will be friends from Saginaw, former home of the Smarts. The guests include Mrs. J. A. Schirmer, Mrs. George Wairson, Mrs. Vera Kysot, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Schirmer and daughter, Lucy.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bugbee of Overhill are expecting relatives from Kansas within the next week. Mrs. Orra Laphan, of Chanute, Kan., and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Meyers of Newton, Kan., are to be the Bugbees' houseguests. They are coming to attend the wedding of Mr. Bugbee's sister, Miss Katherine Bugbee, which is to take place in Detroit Nov. 19.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Smith of Hupp Cross road have left on a touring trip that will take them to Virginia as their final destination.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Boldez of Williamsburg road spent last weekend in South Bend. While there, they visited daughter Mary, a sophomore at St. Mary's of the Woods, and they attended the Notre Dame-Navy game.
 Son Michael, was just as busy in his own way, attending the campout of the Holy Name Scout troop at Orleansville. Tim McFigue and Mike Nolan were also among the campers.
NEW ARRIVAL
 Over Tottenham way there's a new member of the Frederick Columbus family, John Alfred Colom-for League Follies was given by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thomsen of Ardmore road. Arriving for cocktails and remaining for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Love of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Christie of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pelizzari of Royal Oak.

 Another dinner party was held on Ardmore road the same evening when Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Thompson entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Herrick of Lansing. Guests who enjoyed cocktails, dinner and an evening of cards were Mr. and Mrs. Barney Bannan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Alman, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Foley and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Kinder.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Berry of Gilengary traveled down to the Michigan Central depot to wave farewell to their son, Pat and Dick Brown of Southfield road when they left for a week in New York at a Hi-Y meeting. The boys were selected to represent the group from this area, and will report their scenic adventures upon their return. The tour, which included
