Bazaar and Fair Proceeds To Equip Two Schoolrooms

The biggest crowd, the biggest success, a complete sell-out of everything was all Mrs. James O'Rourke could think of when the "Holiday for Things" closed Saturday evening for another year.

Mrs. Donald Custance and Mrs. Thomas Devine heaved a happy sigh along with Mrs. O'Rourke as the three left the building, feeling very elated over the bazaar and children's fair.

The chairman, Mrs. O'Rourke stated that the apron, needlecraft and baked goods booth proved the biggest moneymakers but other booths attracted a lot of attention. Parents and children were lined up for the length of a city block waiting for the show with Milky the Clown and Pirate Pete.

The social hall of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church was decorated in green and gold. The tea table set by Mrs. Francis Truitt was dressed in white cloth with gold ribbon and gold and bronze mums added their richness and beauty.

It was a success and the money, almost $2,000, will be given by the Altar Society of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church to the school to equip two more rooms.
