

Catholic Center Holds Open House

New home of the Catholic Family Center, 63 Franklin boulevard, Pontiac, held openhouse Tuesday at which time the Rev. Wilbur F. Suedkamp blessed the new quarters. He is acting secretary for Catholic charities of the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Purpose of the openhouse was to familiarize people with the services of the Catholic Family Center, to have them meet the staff and better understand its operation and have a known place to send possible problem cases with which they would come in contact.

Hosts included Maurice Croteau, president of the board of directors.

Record Number Attend Luncheon Of Newcomers

Newcomers got a head start on Christmas when they gathered 196 strong for their monthly luncheon, Thursday at the Community House.

MRS. DUNLOP also demonstrated how straw placements and assists can be used as a backing for Christmas greens, and through her choice of colors she proved that one need not feel confined to the traditional red and green to give home decorating a holiday glamour.

STAGE AND screen trials normally present only the highlights and take many short cuts in the interest of brevity and audience appeal. Often an attorney is pictured making objection after objection to the questions and answers as witnesses testify.

IN A REAL courtroom it's true that what's being done or said, as a means of assuring a fair trial, and justice must allow or disallow each objection.

EXHIBITS—written reports, letters, "the murder weapon," and other physical objects having to do with the case—are the next commonest.

That's about the size of it, and that's the way I want it to be if ever I was placed on trial or taken to court for even so much as a speeding ticket.
