MR. AND MRS. ANTHONY BALDWIN

Anthony B. Baldwin Brings His Bride for Weekend Here

Making their first visit to Birmingham since their wedding in September were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Blair Baldwin of Cleveland, who spent last weekend with Baldwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight C. Baldwin of Forest, Birmingham.

The couple recently completed a honeymoon to New England and have established in an apartment on E. 22nd street, Kennosid Village, Euclid, O.

Baldwin is with Ohio's department of state and his wife works in commercial art.

WHILE HERE last weekend, they attended the Ohio-Michigan football game with Mr. and Mrs. Jobe A. Kish of Pontiac.

Kish was one of Baldwin's attendants for the Sept. 24 wedding. Best man was Donald Hayes of Bellefonte, Pa., while other ushers were Dr. Earl S. Shoup of Wayne and Donald Penkoff of Columbus, O.

THE BRIDE, whose wedding band is set with leaf motif in white gold over yellow gold which she designed herself, was attended by Mrs. Donald Penkoff, of Columbus, her sister Gabriele Doyen, and Frances Gore, of Lakewood, O.

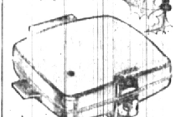

The bride was the former Anne Juering Doyen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Doyen, of Findlay, O., and her and her bridegroom have been officers in the Greater Cleveland Young Republican club.

Baldwin attended Western Michigan college and Peim college, Cleveland, while his bride attended University of Cincinnati and completed studies at Chicago Academy of Fine Arts. She belongs to Alpha Gamma Delta and Delta Phi Delta and honorary while Baldwin belongs to Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity.

The couple's wedding was performed after a half hour of vocal and organ music, in First Lutheran church, Findlay, later, at reception at Findlay Country club, the wedding cake was a five-tier, fash-

Mrs. Calhoun's New Home Opens To Altrusans

Dr. Ethel Calhoun is opening her home at 702 Lakeview to the Birmingham Altrusa Club on Monday evening, November 28th. Following dessert at 7 p.m. Mrs. Cyril B. Lewis, chairman of Altrusa Public Affairs Committee, will give an informative talk on "Inside Oakland County".

Mrs. Lewis is well qualified to present this subject from her knowledge of local affairs thru lifelong residence in Birmingham, serving two terms as City Commissioner and her current appointment by the City Commission to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, where she is now in her eighth year.

Her position on the board is chairman of social welfare.

MRS. LEWIS will discuss county affairs not on the level of a civics course, but from the more intimate viewpoint, pointing out who and what makes the county government tick. Her aim is to endeavor to convert the members from a "they" attitude to a "we" attitude. In other words, she hopes to imbue them with the desire to take an even more personal interest in county government.

Chi Omega Alums Meet for Dinner

The north suburban Chi Omega Alumni will meet for dinner at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening, December 8th at the home of Mrs. Luther Lawrence, 4150 Wuz Lake road, Birmingham.

The program for this special Christmas meeting will be "Christmas Stories" by Mrs. E. A. Burgess. The chairman for the evening is Mrs. Robert Meschke.

This alumni group has taken on as their social service project for the year the Furlong State hospital. They will supply the patients with such articles as Art supplies, books, records, writing materials, games, playing cards etc. Mrs. Robert Page of Manchester is in charge of collecting things.
