Musical Alumnae Provide Program

Musical members of the University of Minnesota Women's club will provide the program for the group's next meeting on December 2.

Following 12:30 p.m. luncheon at Carrie Lee's tea room, club members will adjourn to the home of Mrs. Harlan Salwan, 1170 Chestnutfield, where Mrs. Salwan and Mrs. Kenneth Costley will present a program of organ-vision and organ-piano duets. Mrs. Salwan has a two-manual Baldwin organ in her home.

Instead of the usual Christmas gift exchange, the group has elected to make cash donations to the St. Peter's Home for Boys.

First Thanksgiving Day Observed in New Homes

The first Thanksgiving day in their new home will be celebrated tomorrow as new North Adams families host the traditional feast.

The recently settled John H. Sheldon of 4820 North Adams Road, incidentally purchased the Arthur Kaish house in September, will have as his guest Donald D. Pont, arriving from Oberlin college. Donald's home is in Chappaqua, N. Y., former home of the Sheldons.

The Raebbers, who after ten years on North Adams, moved this fall to Harten road, Bloomfield Hills. They will celebrate Thanksgiving at a family dinner in their new home with son William, home from Ann Arbor. The James Marcan Smiths, formerly of Beach road also will be at home this Thanksgiving Day on Harten road, moving in October to the new address.

The John C. L. Covens of Bloomcrest road are planning a small Thanksgiving dinner at home Tuesday. Covens's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Huyette of Washington, D. C. will arrive for a few days vacation, at which time the Covens will celebrate at a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Huyette whose birthday coincides with their arrival date.

The N. Bradley Hughes of East Long Lake road are celebrating at an old-fashioned family get-together. Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Felt Lovett, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cooper Hugine, Mrs. Frank Tobias and Charles and David Hugob will gather at the dinner table for Thanksgiving.

The Frederick J. Jones of Beach road have invited Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Somes, Jr. and children of Grosse Pointe, and Mrs. Somes Julett and children Ross and Marian to dinner.

The Harry E. Markes's guests will go to the Lums game before dinner at their Charing Cross road home. Joining the Markes's on their box for the game will be Mr. and Mrs. William G. Weston, Jr., and children, Mrs. William G. Weston, Sr., Mrs. Billie Ammon, Mr. and Mrs. Brig Allen and Dr. and Mrs.

A. Gordon Armstrong of Detroit. Mrs. Charles J. Boyer of 851 Fox Run, Hickory Heights returns today from several days in New York City. She accompanied her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boyer on the four day sight seeing and shopping excursion.

Tomorrow Mrs. Boyer will join with the Robert C. Boyers at a dual celebration dinner. July Boyer will be 14 on Monday and the Robert C. Boyers will entertain at a Thanksgiving-Birthday party for her Mrs. Boyer's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sponner of Indianapolis, arrived today to spend the holidays.

The Robert C. Boyers took their houseguests last Saturday to the Michigan-Ohio game. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. W. E. Mitchell of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Seely of Anacostia.

The Jack L. Conns are deer hunting the week at Gilles Lake, Georgian Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Gibb of 3385 Bloomcrest drive, Bloomfield township, are welcomed among recent newcomers. Mr. Gibb is with the United Motors division of General Motors Corporation and they have two sons, James R. and David.

Mr. Gibb left Sunday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with James and his wife who live in Cincinnati. She will remain there until after the arrival of her second grandchild due momentarily.

The Gibbs have one son Bruce David Gibb, a graduate of Michigan State University, is with the U.S. Airforce stationed at Saratoga Springs, N. Y. James graduated from Georgia Tech, before going to Cincinnati to live.

Mrs. J. K. Wilson of Montreal arrived Monday to spend this week with the W. L. Bates of North Adams road. Mrs. Wilson is Mrs. Bates' daughter. At the home, Thanksgiving table this year will be their grandson Master John L. Bonney, Jr., 11 months old and old enough this year to enjoy his first drink. His mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bonney, of Graefield terraces will bring young John to dinner. Other guests will be Mrs. Thompson Tjardia and Thompson Tjardia, Junior.

And at the large dining table in the C. Allen Harlan home on North Adams road there will be just one guest this Thanksgiving Day.

John Harlan has asked his fiancée, Beth Heinger, home for the holiday. Beth's and John's wedding will be an event of this coming February. The Harlan children, among whom will be Joyce, Jim, Joseph, Scott and Jean Marie, will complete the dinner guest list.

While at Jameville, the Douglass' visited Mr. and Mrs. Dan Parker. Before making the trip, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass had her mother, Mrs. Anne Slavson of Oakland, Cal. as their house-guest and entertained 14 friends at luncheon and another group for coffee in Mrs. Slavson's honor.

Are you thinking of buying a new home? Then read the "For Sale Houses" column on the Classified Ad page of this week's Eccentric.

Dinner Dance Honors Retiring President

The president's formal dinner dance on Saturday, Dec. 3, will provide guests with an opportunity to pay tribute to Norbert J. Brennan, retiring president of Oakland Hills Country club.

Mr. Brennan became a member in 1955 and has devoted much of his time and efforts in behalf of the club and its members.
