Alumni Set Dance

The annual Georgetown alumni tea dance will take place Saturday, Nov. 26, at the Lashome Country club. Tickets may be purchased from Reid Hall of Burning Bush road or Bob Benson of Old Mill road.

At business meeting of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Parent-Teacher association, President John Cleary introduced several officers that made announcements.

Mrs. Richard Roach, mother vice-president, told plans for a food show for the sisters of the school on this Sunday.

Father vice-president, Frank Murphy indicated that plans were being made to get a Cub Scout charter by Dec. 14. He and Mrs. James Kelly, Girl Scout leader, voiced a plea for adult helpers for the scouting program.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT was also made that if any members had available a tape recorder, slide tin, projector, or movie screen they would be very acceptable additions to the facilities now in use at the school.

Speaker for the evening, the Rev. Hugh E. Dunn, lecturer in sociology at University of Detroit, talked on home-school relationships and later answered questions from the audience.

The program included parents' coats of their children's school rooms and their meetings with their teachers. Later, refreshments were served.
