

A SAFE AND FUN toy set is the Playwood garage-building kit, made with painted wood that's non-toxic. Pegs and blocks are good for teaching children use of their hands, say toy experts.

YOUTH'S necessary practice using hands to make and shape things is provided by erector sets. Metal pieces can be fitted together to form such structures as this spinning plane-carrier, and other varied sets.

GOLDEN PIANO ACCORDION is modest of musical instruments.

DOLL FROM THE LAST century is this petite, red-haired-doll, whose dress is of Victorian red velvet trimmed with hand-made lace. Her carriage is a foreign-made doll-sleigh, styled much like the horse-drawn sleighs that carried adults in olden times. Both items are from the antique collection of Mrs. Walter Carey of Middlebelt road, Bloomfield Township.

Tots or Teens Like Musicians.

Best possible way to prepare your youngster for a life-time of enjoying music appreciation is to have him start soon to identify himself with play continues the Professor.

TRI-TONE music-making toys vary from rattles and rhythm sticks to big golden tubas and deluxe piano accordions. Thus, at a cost of only a few dollars, parents can give their children an opportunity of demonstrating talent, or aptitudes for particular types of instruments.

By providing music-making toys, parents can be sure their youngsters will derive benefits from expensive musical equipment.

and a full scale keyboard. Other items are a trumpet of sturdy plastic with its music stand model baby grand with 25 keys and instruction song book; guitars made of break-resistant plastic; saxophones, ukuleles, and other items with 52 hand-tuned brass reeds.

THANKSGIVING
is a day to stop and think about a lot of things that we take for granted the rest of the year.
Such things as the blessing of freedom . . . for us not a distant hope, but an ever-present reality. On Thanksgiving Day, let us humbly pray in gratitude to Almighty God for all that we have, all that we are, all that we can hope to be.
