

Next PTA Square Dance on Dec. 15

WALNUT LAKE — Twirling around the dance floor at the square dance in the Walnut Lake school last Thursday were the Floyd Vines, the Corville Morgys, the Ronald Burns, the Clara Hellensberg, the William Nochs and the Albert Schomms.

Still more present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Rosarino, Miss Nola Peasley, Miss Harriet Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. B. Cantelani, Charles Robinson and John Nababedian.

This dance drew the largest crowd of the series and those present enjoyed the evening so much that it was decided not to skip the busy month of December, but to schedule a dance as usual.

Calley Al Griffiths has agreed to be on hand Dec. 15 to continue the series, to which all residents are invited to come. These dances are sponsored by the Walnut Lake school PTA.

Thanksgiving A Festive Occasion Here and Abroad

Thanksgiving will be the usual festive occasion for Ronald Lund, son of the Neil Lunds, of Darramoor road, but will be observed in atypical surroundings. Ronald, airman second class in the United States Air Force, will eat his holiday dinner at an air base in Japan, a few miles from Tokyo.

Thanksgiving at the Donald Butson home on East Darramoor road will mean a full house of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Malvern Butson and sons Gary and Larry arrived today from Allegan for the long weekend, as did daughter Nancy from Akron, Ohio. Joining them for tomorrow's dinner will be Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dalach of Grand Pointe and Mr. and Mrs. John Lane of Detroit.

At the opening night of the Detroit Grand Opera Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fruehauf and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carey of Middlebelt road were on hand to enjoy the performance of "The Marriage of Figaro." Both couples were guests of the Leslie C. Allmann for the Allmanns large dinner party at the Detroit Athletic Club preceding the opera.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE
A surprise birthday party for the boy was the occasion for the celebration at the John R. Bull home on West Darramoor road on Saturday, Nov. 12.

Birmingham guests on hand for dinner or later after attending dinner were on hand to enjoy the performance of "The Marriage of Figaro." Both couples were guests of the Leslie C. Allmann for the Allmanns large dinner party at the Detroit Athletic Club preceding the opera.

erent Saturday afternoon football games were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Branson, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Zint, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. William McEwen, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Riggers, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hardig and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Waters.

Mr. and Mrs. Waters will be our neighbors within the next month when they move into their new home on Inkster road in the Meadowlake subdivision.

Gathered for bridge at the Dale Brubaker home last Thursday were Mrs. Earl Lutz, Mrs. John Meke, Mrs. Lyle Paris, Mrs. Harold Woodward, Mrs. Ray Marlin and Mrs. William Bunnell. The icy wind outside was forgotten as the players concentrated on hearts and diamonds and the tempting refreshments.

DEER HUNTERS
Dr. Farley L. Granger of Middlebelt was among local hunters who took to the woods last week, having left for his cabin at Lucerne. Dr. Granger returned home during the latter part of the week and is bringing back deer to the all-important game at Ann Arbor.

Dale Brubaker, of South Clunbury road, was stalking deer near Mio with Dr. Earl F. Lutz, of Lantern Lane, Foxcroft. Dr. Verne R. Richards, of Walnut Lake road, was also in the vicinity of Lucerne with other members of the Beeley Boys' Lodge.

Mrs. Frank A. Kenney, mother of Mrs. O. S. Koskinen of Bloomfield Glenview, flew to California last week to spend some time with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Trabold, in San Valley. The Koskinens are expecting son, Mike, a student at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, home in time for a late dinner tomorrow. He is being notified that he is driving home with four other boys, leaving when classes are over today.

Among the young people from this area who took their parents and friends on the Grand European Holiday tour via the Birmingham high school variety show last Thursday and Friday evenings were Judy Guest, Sally Hanson, Dennis Byers, Carolyn Cooper, Nancy Layman, Pat MacLennan, Harvey Sellner, Barbara Shank, Judy Sundstrom, Karen Weaver and Elaine Palmer.

Tamara Rademoch, Ann Rice, Charles Sarlund, John Palmer and Pamela Parkins performed in the show.

Judy Button, Lynn Roberts, Carole Negri, Patti Nyberg, Carol Walters, Sheila Menoch, Jill Morgan and Don Zimmerman were in subsequent numbers of the entertainment, which played to capacity audiences in the huge gym.

The Elliott Oakwoods on Daintree road will have a happy Thanksgiving tomorrow as they celebrate the arrival of a new son, born Sunday morning at St. Joseph hospital. Small John Christopher weighed 8 lbs. 14 oz. at birth.

Ninety Women Attend Community Tea at Mrs. Charles Deuel's Home

Last Wednesday, newcomers to Valley Woods were welcomed and introduced to their neighbors in the community at a tea given in the home of Mrs. Charles Deuel of Eastlady road. The tea was sponsored by the Valley Woods Women's group.

Chairman Mrs. Kenneth Kittle of Westlady road and members of her committee were pleased at the response, as over 90 women attended.

Co-hostessing the tea were Mrs. Russell Seeburger, Mrs. Charles Shull, Mrs. Bert Gustard of Bellvue vine trail, Mrs. John Villa of Plumwood lane; Mrs. William Harris, Mrs. Gordon Walker, Mrs. Bernard Wilkie, Mrs. Chester Sayles of Westlady road; Mrs. A. Hartman, Mrs. John Tessmar of Eastlady road and Mrs. Michael Gilme of Forest lane.

Because the tea was so well received, the Women's Group hope to make this an annual affair.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Culley of Eastlady road and the James Wilsons of 13 Mile road spent the weekend at Williamwoods College in Fulton, Mo. The families drove down to have the daughters Jan Culley and Judy Wilson honor their fathers on Dad's Day at the school. All fathers were entertained on Sunday at dinner and a program which followed. Jan and Judy are juniors at Williamwoods.

ASSOCIATION MEETS
A meeting of the Berkshire Hills Protective Association was held at the home of Dr. Russell Seeburger on Bellvue trail, Jack Carmichael, president of the Berkshires was in charge of the meeting.

The board voted at this meeting to hold a debate on the pros and cons of the City of Southfield charter.

Also present at the Seeburger home were Harold Grandy, Briarbank court, Anthony Foley, Vernon road, S. L. Ferguson, Woodland road and Charles Shull of Belle vine trail.

The Irvin Meloches of Stellmar had 32 friends in the other evening at a going-away party for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Howard who have moved to Mt. Clemens.

Mr. Meloches is looking forward to Saturday evening when he can shine as head cook at the outdoor grill with steaks for all. The Meloches will be entertaining a group of six at dinner and bridge.

DEBATE CHARTER
The Valley Woods area, members of the Berkshire Hills Protective Association, will have an opportunity Nov. 29 to attend a debate on the City of Southfield charter.
