The Charles W. Irwin will give thanks on the holiday in their new home at 5990 Orchard Bend. Charles and Adele, formerly from Royal Oak, have one daughter, Betty, 9.

Irwin is active with the Engineering Society group, and he is the director for the Paint and Varnish Association. Gardening and golf share family interests, and Adele, who is active in PTH work, is room mother for Vaughan school. Irwin is with Tech Products of Shell Oil.

With the family now scattered to various parts of the country, the holidays always mean a busy time for the Carleton Scotts of Lane Lake. The Scotts left this week for Providence, R. I., where they will have a holiday dinner with Carleton's brother, Dr. Kenneth Scott.

They plan to see the Brown-Colgate football game while they are there. On Friday, the Scotts will leave Providence and fly to New York for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Adams (Carlyle Scott). After a three-day stay in Manhattan, they will fly to Baltimore to see Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hopkins (Dotty Scott) and the grandchildren, Scott and Philip.

Last Sunday night, the Scotts entertained at a dinner 18 people who have one thing in common—a love of old Mexico. Carleton and Norry are planning a trip along the border in the near future.

The Women's Bridge Club met Wednesday night, and the Gilbert Lake group went down to Ruth Berry's home in Lathrop Village for the evening. Marie Ray and Carol Lehr were there along with Sue Piew, Madelyn Jarkel and Mary Jacobson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw of Pon Valley are sharing their holiday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw, Jr. of Morristown, N. J. The junior Hinshaws came early so they might see the Michigan-Ohio State game last Saturday. New 7 Ten-year-old Hinshaw of Elyria, Ohio, also came up for the game.

Brewer Family To Spend Thanksgiving Day in Flint

The Howdy Brewers will spend Thanksgiving Day with Howdy's mother, Mrs. W. J. Brewer in Flint. Mr. and Mrs. Brewer will return home that evening so they will be ready for the movers: Friday morning when they leave 32128 Auburn drive and move into the new home at 18560 River. The three little Brewers, Johnny, Sherry and Barby will stay with Grandmother for the long weekend.

Mrs. Andrew Freimann arrived from Rochester, N.Y., Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Stahl and two grandchildren, Cynthia and Doug.

Mrs. Freimann will stay over on her way to Doug's third birthday on the 26th. There will be a party and guests will be Barby and Sherry Brewer, Teri Hensick, Jeff Moss, Bob Guilford, and Bruce Brundrett.

Kathy Garrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Garrett of Loehrbie was thrilled as punch when she was elected in the United Nations essay contest. Kathy, an 11th grade student at Birmingham high, chose the Palestine problem as her subject. Her prize—a $25 deferred bond. Congratulations Kathy!

NEW NEIGHBORS

Mr. and Mrs. William Monahan, formerly of Oak Park, moved into their new home at 12522 Marguerite in several weeks ago, and on Sunday they flew to New York for a combined pleasure and business trip. They are back once again with their two daughters, Barbara Lee, 10 and July 6.

Monahan is associate to the president, C. Jean Casper of the Jem Industries, Incorporation which has just last Monday opened a new office in the Briggs building in Birmingham. This company has a new product, Jem Air-Air, an air corrective which soon will be marketed.

What with moving into a new home and into a new office, Monahan hasn't had much time for his usual hunting and fishing expeditions but hopes spring will see him out of the open once again. He is a member of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Monahan was still living in Oak Park when she started working with the Girl Scouts at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school, as assistant to the neighborhood chairman.

W. R. Sidorski of Loehrbie attended Hefe's day at Williams and College at Fulton, Mo. Ellen Joan Sidorski is a junior at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Osterling and children, Linda, Dickie, and twins, Pam and Pat, moved out work from their home on Auburn to Milwaukee.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kelly of Auburn drive gave a party for their son, Billy, in celebration of his fourth birthday. It was a Wild West party with guns and rubber knives given to each of the guests who then played Cowboy and Indians until cake and ice cream were served.

Guests were Bobbie Guilford, Bruce Brundrett, Jeff Moss, and Kenny Dallas as the eye-roaring cowboys and Teri Hensick, Sherry Brewer, and Sue Ann Capinjala as the sweet little girls who helped to keep the party toned down. Billy's brother, Mike and sisters, Gay
