Local Residents To Honor Western College President

Efforts of Mrs. Raymond G. Bower, East Long Lake road, a trustee of Western College, brings Dr. Herrich B. Young, president of the college to Birmingham, Nov. 9, to speak to the American Association of University Women on foreign students in this country.

Together with her assistant, Mrs. Robert W. Brandon of Pine Hill drive, Mrs. Bower has planned the tea given by the Western College Alumni club of Metropolitan Detroit of which Mrs. Edwin F. Kirbert, Chestnut Hill drive, is this year's president.

Later Alumni club members with their husbands will honor Dr. Young at a buffet supper at the Birmingham boulevard home of Mr. and Mrs. (Clare E. Kopplich). Among guests for the evening will be Miss Sara Babcock, educational counselor from the college to this district of Michigan.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Kirbert assisted in escorting student teachers in the city to dinner at Devon Gables and on to Will-O-Way theatre. Mrs. Kirbert these past two weeks has taught classes in copper enameling as part of the student-teacher program.

VISIT IN EAST
The John H. Stresen-Reuters of Lennox road, Bloomfield Hills are home after a three weeks vacation which took them from New York City to Ithaca, N. Y., and on to the quiet retreat at Glen Lake.

They had five days in New York City, saw a few good shows including "Pajama Game" and went on to Ithaca where they visited Mrs. Stresen-Reuter's parents.

From Glen Arbor they visited with son Bill who is in his second year at Leelanau and saw two of the school's football games. Bill, who plays on the team, managed to get his first injury while they were there and ended up in the hospital; however, all is well now, report the Stresen-Reuters.

Mr. and Mrs. Burke Bartlett moved from Yosemite in Birmingham via 125 North Evansdale, Bloomfield township, in October. Bartlett, owner of the Burke Bartlett Company, Inc. is in the industrial advertising business in Royal Oak. They both enjoy golf and fishing and are members of the two Hundred Diners Club of Bloomfield Hills as well as Red Run Golf and Country Club.
