'Over the Top' For St. Columban

Contributions totaling $115,012 have been received in the St. Columban building fund campaign, sending it "over the top" of its minimum goal of $100,000 in the third week of general visitation, it was announced by the Rev. Thomas M. Kenny, pastor.

With some parishioners yet to be called on, and the campaign workers full of zeal, Father Kenny's expectations are high for the next report meeting to send the total still higher. He complimented workers on their earnest efforts for their parish and expressed his gratitude to all contributors who came to the aid of St. Columban parish in its hour of need.

Robert Tamm, general chairman of the devoted attendance during the drive as proof that Catholics working in the direction of Catholic action can accomplish much. He also urged men to carry this spirit in other parish activities.

THE CAMPAIGN, directed by John V. McCarthy and Associates, Detroit, now moves into the important pledge payment period and active follow-up phase. They also will direct the follow-up phase for the two year pledge period.

Funds being raised are to help offset the current parish debt and enable the construction of a parochial school.

In group competition for the greatest number of contributions obtained Team 4 led by John Dolan and Norman Moore have received donations of $10,175.
