We Heard It Said By:

JANE HILVERKUS, in League of Women Voters bulletin on coming literature available on world trade: "Will you take your cream without coffee? Your split without bananas? Your car without tires? Your tanks without gas? You won't! Then, world trade affects you. And what Congress does about world trade affects you, too."

MRS. VERNON F. KNIGHT

Hillsdale Campus,
Home of Newlyweds

Vernon Francis Knight and his bride, the former Mildred A. Beck, will make their home on the campus of Hillsdale college where he is a junior. They exchanged vows Saturday afternoon at double ring rites in the First Methodist church. The Rev. Arnold F. Runkel officiated before members of the immediate families and close friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Beck of Larchlea drive. Her husband's parents are the William F. Knights of Wayburn avenue, Detroit. Mildred chose a beige wool princess style dress with a matching hat and corsage of white orchids. Her flowers were shell pink orchids.

An Alpha Tau Omega brother of the groom, Gary Kain, served as best man. The bride's brother, Fred, seated the guests. Hosting the reception in their home, Mrs. Beck wore a light blue wool dress with white accessories and pale pink rosebuds. Mrs. Bloomfield Hills and a student at MSU, in an avocado green wool to her aqua wool dress.
