

I, along with millions of fellow-men often plead guilty to the sin of talking too much when in the company of others. Then, when I recall that silence can be golden, I practice it and find I often get more knowledge and fun by so doing.

Dancing Parents Help Clinic

THREE GIRLS and a man always make an interesting dance combination. While no detailed description is forthcoming from Follies directors, they nevertheless include this number among their "top performances" selection.

MOMMY and Daddy are in the Follies and we get to watch, is the reaction of Peter (Davy Crockett) Vandusen and little Dick Baxter. The two lads had lots of fun during debarsals, watching the "old folks" learning their routines.

ANOTHER who stirred the pulses of a past generation was the beautiful Lillian Russell, brought to life for the Follies by Mrs. R. Jamison Williams.

FAMOUS in her day for her mysterious appeal, the great Theda Bara will be impersonated by Mrs. Richard Todd. She will hold forth Nov. 9, 10, when Birmingham Junior Leagueurs present their Follies at the Birmingham theater. The 8:30 p.m. shows are "reserve seats only", with funds going to support the League-sponsored Child Guidance clinic opening here in January. About 150 local men and women are dancing and singing their way through the 28 acts that are being directed by Torrey McKenny of New York.

ARABIAN dancers will provide a glimpse of what the old Ziegfeld Follies were like, even to portraying the slave girl and one of the favored from the harem.

YOU CAN'T have a true Follies without a chorus line, so these League members have spent hours learning rhythm dancing which has already been likened to the famous "Rockettes" of New York City fame.

Bermuda Holiday

MR. AND MRS. Lee N. Mays of Birmingham were hosts recently to 125 Chevrolet salesmen and their wives on a visit to picturesque Nassau in the Bahama Islands. The salesmen were awarded the trip as a grand prize in a national Chevrolet sales program. Mays, assistant to the general sales manager of Chevrolet, represented the company as official host at parties, tours and yachting trips.

Bradford Freshmen Out for a Walk

Peaceful Pond

TRANQUIL REFLECTION of the picturesque church, St. Hugo of the Hills, is seen in the small pond as one crosses the arched bridge on the church grounds. Colors of reds and yellows stand out against the dark greens of pines and weeping willows and grey of the building's stones.
