About 100 Area Youngsters Participate in Area Party

Community spirit was out in force last Sunday afternoon when food, prizes and fun headlined the Halloween parade. About 100 area children met for the big doings and the parade proceeded down Smallwood drive to the Shull residence on Bellevue Trail.

Doughnuts and cider were served by Mrs. Russell Seeburger's committee. After such an enthusiastic reception, mothers of the area plan on making this a yearly event.

BROWNIES
A new Brownie Troop No. 673 has been organized with Mrs. Bert Gatward and Mrs. J. W. Duhn as co-leaders. The girls meet each Thursday and had their first outing at a cook-out supper at the Duhn residence on Lanier road. The girls collected leaves and twigs in the woods and later put them in small pumpkins which they had prepared for centerpieces on Halloween.

In the troop are Martha Forsythe, Deborah Deuel, Diana Finkle, Barbara Scheffer, Sandra Spencer, Elizabeth Stark, Cheryl Sawyer, Janella Severy, Patricia Smith, Lynn Rodger, Judy Dehm, Sally Duhn and Janice Gatward.

Mrs. Maurice Rogers of Woodhaven drive hosted at a farewell luncheon Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Robert Spencer of Vernon drive who will be leaving to spend the winter in Florida. The Spencers are planning to return next summer. The guest list included Mrs. Oren Bleake, Mrs. Anthony Foley and Mrs. John C. Evans.

WEEKEND GUESTS
The Russell Seeburgers of Bellevue had his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sowers, of Bay City for the weekend. The community appreciated Mrs. Sowers' help at the refreshment stand during the area's Halloween celebration.

Young Russ Seeburger entertained several of his friends at a Halloween dinner Monday evening. Billy Struby, David Shier, Richard and Robert Westbury, Freddie Nicholson and Dick Schuster joined Russ and his family. After eating, the group went begging.

Janet Gregory brought her friend Lynda Redhead home for the weekend at the Charles Gregorys of Smallwood drive. Both are second grade teachers in South Edge, Ohio.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hall of

CUB SCOUTS DEN 10
Cub Scouts of den No. 10 had a pleasant surprise at their last meeting. Mrs. Ben Robertson, den mother, had planned a surprise Halloween party complete with Smallwood drive spent ten days at their summer home on Drummond Isle. The Doctor considers this "a land of paradise" for hunting and fishing.

The Robert Barlows of Smallwood drive celebrated their wedding anniversary with 18 of their friends at cocktails and a buffet supper last week. After supper the group played cards. Attending the anniversary supper and guests for the weekend were Mrs. Barlow's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haylor of Flint.

Friendly Circle Will Present Fashions of Other Eras Nov. 15

The Friendly Circle will hold a fashion show, featuring fashions of other eras, Tuesday, Nov. 15, starting at 1:00 p.m. The affair will be followed by a tea and will be held at the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan building, 761 W. Huron street, one block east of Telegraph.

Costumes of the 1800's, rented from the Goodwill Industries, will be modeled by circle members. The public is invited to attend, obtaining tickets from Mrs. Ralph Woodburn or committee members. Proceeds will go to the Women's Society for Christian Service after a donation to the Goodwill Industries.

Mrs. Woodburn is chairman of the fashion show. Mrs. Stanley Krentel is in charge of the tea, assisted by Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. Glen Shoemaker, Mrs. Earl Taylor, Mrs. Ernest Hoinington, Mrs. George Wilber, Mrs. Vernon Fisher and Mrs. Homer Hyde.

VILLAGE PLAYERS
Thursday, Nov. 10, Friday the 11th and Saturday the 12th are the dates for the Franklin Village Players' presentation of the play "Goodbye, My Fancy," first produced on Broadway in 1948 with Madeleine Carroll, Shirley Booth and Conrad Nagel in the starring roles.

Twenty-three local thespians are cast in roles running the gamut of life in a small New England college. The play concerns a congressman who returns to his old school for commencement week. There, to find that the college president and the magazine photographer assigned to the event are old flames.

Tickets may be obtained from Grace Harris, Len Madge or Kitty Gillen.

The Clifford Dixons were hosts last weekend to a house guest, Foo Ho Lai, one of 18 foreign students at the U of M who were guests of various residents in this vicinity.

Here from China, Foo Ho is taking a 5-week course in English after which he will study forestry. The Dixons found the Chinese meal, prepared by their guest, interesting, and delicious and which included a vegetable soup, marinated pork and chop suey.

Franklin fire department volunteers met last Sunday morning to give both trucks and their apparatus and equipment a thorough going over during the first regular scheduled maintenance session of the season.
