Led by captain Doug Wuggazer, who set a new course record at 16:17, Birmingham surprised defending champion Pontiac by capturing the regional cross-country championship on the Maple course last Saturday.

WUGGAZER, who has yet to be beaten this year, led the 97 runners from 15 class "A" schools, followed by Bill Douglas of Pontiac, Dennis Carrigan of Redford and Roy Vivian of Hazel Park.

PONTIAC, winner of 37 straight dual meets, captured the regional title for two years previously.

Among the top four qualifiers for the state meet at Ypsilanti on Saturday was coach B. E. Buran as a Brewer's Southfield team.

BIRMINGHAM had 41 points for first, followed by Pontiac's 68, Hazel Park's 91 and Southfield's 114. It was Birmingham's first regional championship.

Southfield Sputters In Loss to Waterford; Meets Redford Friday

As a result of its second league loss in as many weeks, Southfield has now been forced to settle for third place in the Inter-Lakes conference after a 7-0 shutout at the hands of Waterford.

The JAYS' lifeless offense could muster only 30 net yards rushing against the big Waterford front line, and totaled only three first downs in the game.

In the first half Southfield gained only nine yards six by Sam Mandarichia and three by Ron Brewer.

Big Sam sustained an ankle injury in the second quarter which hampered him slightly.

The Jays met Redford Friday night neither team was able to move the ball. Waterford started a second period drive from its own 37 yard line.

Lyndon Stathel raced 21 yards to the Jay 40 and after two consecutive first downs, Tom Bryce over his left tackle from the goal line for the score. The point made it 7-0 which ultimately was the final score.

AT THE START of the second half, Southfield perked up and in three plays moved to Waterford's three yard line where Dick Morgan fumbled and lost the ball.
