

1890 Pastor's Daughter Returns, Brings '92 Menu

By DOROTHY JACKMAN

In 1890 the Rev. Augustus Marsh came to Birmingham as minister of the Presbyterian Church where he served until 1898. The family was active in civic and cultural affairs and Mrs. Marsh was one of the founding members of the Woman's Literary Club of Birmingham.

Her daughter, Mrs. Leroy Cram, after many years away from her mother, the menu of the Birmingham, Mrs. Cram once again met at 1892 which celebrated the 100th anniversary of the club's first year.

family, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Cram and children, Richard and Allison, formerly from Highland Park and are living at 1890 Oxford road, Bloomfield Township.

CRAM IS A FREE lance writer. Richard, 10, has spent most of his spare time working in the Indian Guides, but may join neighborhood boys later in Scouting. Alison, 9, a Brownie, enjoys swimming and skating and the family hobby, model trains.

Mrs. Leroy Cram enjoys the distinctive honor of being the first woman Regent of the University of Michigan, serving from 1929 to 1942.

Banquet Honors Sigma Founders

When the Sigma Kappas honor their five founders on Wednesday, Nov. 9, 81 candles will be lighted. It was in 1874 in Waterville, Me., that the five coeds banded together to form a sorority.

"What Sigma Kappa Means to Me" will be the story Mrs. Robert Betts tells to her sisters following the 7 o'clock dinner at the Northwood Inn, Berkley. She will be introduced by the toastmistress, Mrs. Charles Hutton of Birmingham.

A vocal group from Dearborn, the "Mel-O-Tones", will add to the festivities. One of the quartet of barbershop singers is a member of the sorority.

Mrs. Ernest Anderson of Huntington Woods is general chairman of the Founders Day banquet. She will have Mrs. Robert Wandel of Birmingham as chairman of programs. Mrs. Clifton Hewitt of Berkley in charge of making place cards and Mrs. L. J. Hayes of Oak Park responsible for decorations.

Reservations for the banquet may be made by calling Mrs.

Holiday Season is Theme

The Kappa Delta Alumni Association have planned a program for Nov. 7 at the home of Mrs. Patrick Monaghan, 32475 Bingham road, Southfield township. The theme "Christmas for the Home" will be carried out in decorations by using available articles found in the home. Mrs. C. R. Obermyer will be speaker.

Last week the group had a toy demonstration at the Gordon Lane

Chester Plattner or Mrs. Robert J. Foss.

Mrs. Estes Named State Historian

Local delegates returned from the Michigan State Convention of MOMS of America, Inc., at which time Mrs. H. R. Estes of Birmingham's Unit 3 was elected state historian. Representing the club were Mrs. J. L. Harribeau and Mrs. J. Coona.

One of the main discussions at the convocation was the resolution sent to Michigan congressmen in Washington urging them not to vote appropriations for extended services for control of juvenile delinquency.

It has been advised by philosophers of the past that one should not talk loudly about what he intends to do... better to maintain silence and let talk follow the deed. Come to think of it, there is much of value in this idea!
