

Former Resident Married Recently

Mrs. May Gray, a former resident of 608 Oak street, was married last month to Capt. air Elliott E. J. J. of New York and Miami in the Little Church Around the Corner, New York. Linda Gray, a former Quanton and Birmingham high school student, was her mother's maid of honor. Linda came from Mary A. Barnhart school in Northampton, where she is finishing high school and also studying vocal music at Smith college. The bride's only brother, Thomas Kilgour, gave her in marriage. Harold Bolton was best man. After the ceremony, a wedding supper was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Boulton on Long Island. Since leaving Birmingham three years ago, the Grays lived in Brookville and Mrs. Gray was associated with the United Nations

A HALF DOZEN small steeds pulled youngsters at Quanton Parent-Teacher associations fair around the school grounds last Friday. Three look on as Jack Ivory's horsemen finish adjusting the harness before loading in the young passengers into the wagon.

Lots of Phoning for Party

Discussing plans for the Village Players' supper dance on November 12, co-chairmen Mrs. Ralph Skinner, Jr. of Fairfax, and Mrs. J. Paul McConkie of Lincoln, spend hours at their phones these days. When not checking with each other on the formal affair, to be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., the two still keep their lines busy. They're phoning about such matters as a mike for the orchestra, tuning the piano, and resin for the dance floor.

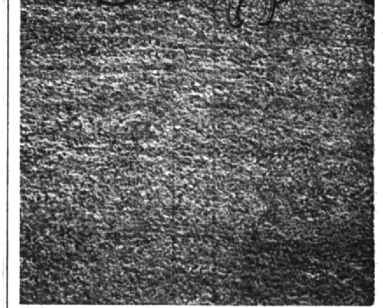

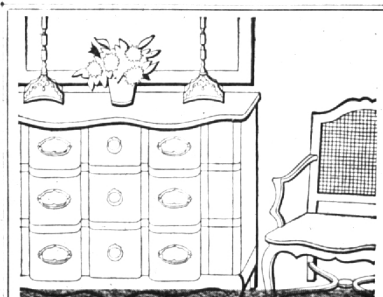

MRS. SKINNER

MRS. MCCONKIE

THEY HAVE lined up the three-piece orchestra of Bart Dykes, who vocalizes and plays both accordion and piano. For midnight supper, the busy callers have arranged for caterers to serve a smorgasbord featuring roast beef, turkey, and Swedish dishes. Decorating plans call for greens to adorn the Playhouse lobby and stage, plus a huge swag over the fireplace to carry out the browns and yellows of the fall theme.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—all the society editor about them.
