Counsellor Says Words May Lack Meaning for Wife

Quarrels over money or in-laws may be the result of the married couple not speaking the "same language," Mrs. Mildred Peris, Detroit Marriage counsellor, told about 50 women of the Birmingham Woman's club Tuesday afternoon at Community House.

"We must recognize also that it can be blocked though they speak the same language," she said, stressing especially inter-personal relationship such as marriage.

"WITH QUARRELING, if tensions increase, or if conflict is ignored or covered up," the dark-haired speaker said, "inner tension mounts and the communication channels in the marriage are broken down."

Background of each person may give different meaning to words, she pointed out. A man's criticism of his in-laws may seem an attack on his wife's background.

MARRIAGE counseling can give such marriage partners the understanding needed, she told the

NANCY MIDDLETON

Announces Troth Of Stewardess

Mrs. John Thomas Middleton of Boulder, Colo., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Nancy Middleton, to George H. L. Burdick, Jr. He is the son of the George H. Burdicks, 611 Henrietta.

Burdick attended Michigan State before entering the air force, in which he served three years, including weather intelligence service in Korea, operating behind enemy lines in Communist-held North Korea.

His bride-elect is a Boulder high school graduate and attended the University of Colorado before taking stewardess training in Cheyenne, Wyo., for United Airlines. She has been based in New York flying out of Lufkin airport for the past year.

No wedding date has been set.

Exhibits for Schools

CRANBOOK—Among the Institute's fifty-plus educational exhibits and collections available for loans to schools in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area, are habitat groups in illuminated cases, boxed thematic exhibits and labeled specimens in suitcases. Teachers wishing to borrow any of these exhibits may write for complete list and instructions.

Thousands of people read The Eccentric Classified Ads. So remember if you want to sell that hard-to-get-rid-of article, advertise it in the Want Ad section of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Her talk was introduced by Mrs. Bennett Root, chairman of the Modern Living group, who arranged the program, following dessert tea arranged by Mrs. Robert Clark committee.
