'55 Field Day Friday At Birmingham High

By DAVE PHILLIPS
This year, as in the past 50 odd, the proud tradition of Field Day will be upheld tomorrow on the high school football field.
Under guidance of general chairman Stu Laidlaw and Student Congress committees, Field Day is being shaped into an organized affair.
All classes have been working on plans more or less since school started and have chosen general class chairmen, including Carol Orr, senior; Steve Pew, junior; Chuck Gibson, sophomore; and Linda Burkman, freshman.
Under general class chairmen, themes were chosen and committee completed final details.
SENIOR committee chairmen are: float, John Fairbairn and Bo Shimko; lineup, Nina Slawson; watergate, Marie Lindquist; Denise Gilchrist and Janet Palmer; marching, Barb Brook; boys' events, Don Haugh and Tom Hizar; girls' events, Julie Studer; cheers, Helen Cowell and social education, Sue Browne.
Junior chairmen are float, John

Village School Has New Students Listed

At Bloomfield Village school two new students, Jan Kubinec and Dana Fators, were welcomed into kindergarten this week.
A "snack" highlight came about last week when the little folks prepared apple sauce to have with their cookies and milk.
Fourth and fifth graders have their officers, including Jim Falconer, president; Barbara Zwally, vice president; Winifred Burgess, secretary. They call themselves the Bloomfield Village Eagles.
Currently they are combining learning and pleasure through their use of FM radio program in French, on science, history and aviation.

Students at Barnum Name Council Slate

Student council elections at Barnum junior high school last week followed a program to introduce candidates. Susan Bliss headed the event.
New officers are president, Greg Wilbeck; vice president, Nancy Thalacker; secretary, Nancy Madison; and treasurer, Phil Isbell.

Noon Transportation

A change in the program at City and Country school's nursery department provides for transportation of children to their homes at noon. Special classes in music, art, field trips along with personality development in preparation for grades, still is stressed.

Livonian Pastor Talks to BWC

The Rev. Robert Richards will speak when Birmingham Business Women's club celebrates its 22nd anniversary with a banquet at 6:45 p.m. next Thursday at Community House.
Mr. Richards was baritone soloist at First Methodist church, Birmingham, before he went into the ministry. He served churches in Franklin and five other towns in Michigan before going to Newburg Methodist church, Livonia.

Newcomers Plan Luncheon, Dance

Two October events are scheduled for the Birmingham Newcomers club, one at the Community House the other at Birmingham Country club.
The luncheon will be the regular monthly luncheon on Oct. 20, with Robert Thom, noted artist, speaker.
He will tell of the research and work that has gone into the 30 paintings already completed in his "History of Pharmacy" series. Slides based on the 13th painting, "Apothecary—the Persian Galen" will illustrate his talk.
The Oct. 21 event, a dance at the country club, is under the direction of Mrs. Donald Kogge and Mrs. Paul Lenehan. An informal affair, dancing will start at 9:30 p.m.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES RICHARDS BUCK

Saturday Newlyweds To Live on Campus

A powder blue wool dressmaker suit was the choice of Kathryn Mills Kim for her marriage to James Richards Buck at 11:30 a.m., Saturday, in St. James Episcopal church. The Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Kathryn, the daughter of Mrs. Marvin Kim of Catalpa and the late Mr. Kim, wore navy blue accessories and a white arched veil her ensemble. She was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, James H. Heck.

MRS. Thomas Butters was matriarch of honor and only attendant in a light blue suit with pink accessories and flowers.
Best man for James, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Buck of Muskegon, was David Thomas Butters, seal of the guests.
A rose beige tuxedo suit with matching bowtie and accessories and white arched veil was the choice of Mrs. Kim. The groom's mother wore cinnamon brown with green and brown orchids.
The wedding breakfast was at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hutchins.
The couple will make their home on the campus of Ohio Northern University at Ada, Ohio.

Popleton School Has Combined Tea

A combined tea for the two second and grades at Popleton school was held this month in the all purpose room. Mrs. Linda Aspinwall, second grade teacher, gave a talk about the phases of a seven-year-old child goes through and informed mothers what to expect in the physical growth and mental actions of their children.
Autumn colors and flowers were used to decorate the tea table from which Mrs. Frank Willdeker poured. Hostesses were Mrs. Aspinwall and Mrs. Dorothy Lanis.
