

CHATTING AROUND an arrangement of yellow fuji mums as they arrived for the social hour are members who played an important part in the convention—Mrs. W. H. Barton of East Lansing, director of Central Region of the National Council of Garden clubs; Mrs. Henry P. Williams of Provenal road, Grosse Pointe, mother of Michigan's governor and general hostess for the convention; and Mrs. Frederick Schumann of Grosse Pointe, state president.

 Al Reibling and Ed Tobin. Directing with the confidence born of experience both as a seasoned thespian and a former commissioned officer is Dr. Jack Hassberger with Mrs. Edward Reid, Jr. as his assistant.

IN THE prompter's seat is Mrs. Richard Brown whose toughest job has been to follow some of the German used freely throughout the play.

This is the first time that a local theater group has done this play since it made its initial appearance on Broadway in 1951 with Jose Ferrer directing.

Tickets are available to the public for all four performances and will be sold at Grinnell's after Oct. 17.
